ARE YOU ADVERTISING IN THE DIRECTORY? ? ?

IF NOT—WHY NOT?

THE POST OFFICE GLASGOW DIRECTORY is an indispensable book of reference, particularly for commercial and professional people in the city. It is also a valuable guide for tradesmen and private citizens because of the comprehensive character of its contents. It is over a century since this ever-increasing compendium was established as an index to the personnel in the social, business, religious, and philanthropic life of the city. Business and commercial people in particular would be severely handicapped if they had not at their disposal the varied and accurate information it contains. It thus readily meets the eyes of purchasers of all classes of goods, and in consequence as an advertising medium is "SECOND TO NONE."

INLAND POST.

The regulations of the Inland Post apply generally to any postal packet sent between one place and another in the United Kingdom (including the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands) and to any postal packet sent between a place in the United Kingdom and a place in Eire. Special regulations apply in some instances to the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man, and Eire (see pages 45, 56 and 57, Post Office Guide).

Letters. *

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

Not exceeding 2 oz. in weight, 2½d.; for every additional 2 oz. or fraction of 2 oz., ½d.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the deficiency.

3. There is no limit of weight. The limits of size are:—

For the United Kingdom—

2 feet in length, 18 inches in width and 18 inches in depth; or if made up in the form of a roll, 3 feet 3 inches for the length and twice the diameter combined, and 2 feet 8 inches for the greatest dimension.

For Eire—

2 feet in length, 1 foot in width and 1 foot in depth; or if made up in the form of a roll, 2 feet 6 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter.

All letters containing instructions to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope "Re-direction of Letters;" such an intimation will cause the communication to be attended to at once. For letters addressed to Sailors and Soldiers, see P.O. Guide, page 117.

Post Cards.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on every post card is twopence. A post card posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount short paid. The prepaid rate of postage on every reply post card is fourpence.

2. The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be ordinary cardboard not thinner than that used for the thinnest cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. No card may exceed 5¾ inches in length by 4⅛ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

3. Nothing may be attached to a post card except (a) stamps in payment of postage or stamp duty; (b) a label or slip to fold back completely adherent to the card and bearing the name and address of the person to whom the card is sent; (c) a similar label (not to exceed 2 inches long and ¾ inch wide) bearing the sender's name and address; and (d) engravings, photographs, drawings, and printed matter, on very thin paper and completely adherent to the card. A postcard may not be folded, nor may it be cut or altered in such a way as to reduce the size below 4 by 2¾ inches. A post card may not be fastened against inspection in any way, or enclosed in a cover of any kind. If any of these rules be infringed, the card will be treated as a letter.

4. The articles specified in paragraphs (c) and (d) may be affixed either to the back of the card or to the left hand half of the address side. The right hand half of the address side is reserved exclusively for the postage stamp and the address. Contravention of this regulation may result in the card being withheld from delivery. (See also Post Office Guide, pages 135 and 136.)

*Printed Papers.

The prepaid rate is:—Not exceeding 2 oz., 1d.; for every additional 2 oz. or fraction thereof up to 2 lb. (maximum), ½d.

But any Printed Paper prepaid one penny only and intended for despatch on the day of posting must be posted not later than 4.30 p.m. in London, or in the Provinces not later than such hour as is announced at the local Post Office. The minimum rate of postage for all packets sent at the Printed Paper Rate and intended for despatch by the night mail is 1½d. if posted after the specified time.

A Printed Paper if posted unpaid is charged on delivery with double postage; if posted underpaid, with double the amount of the deficiency.

A packet is not necessarily admissible at the Printed Paper Rate because it contains nothing but printed matter. The whole of the contents must fall clearly within the definition given below, which does not include articles of stationery such as blotting paper, notepaper, envelopes, labels, etc. And in reading the definition it must be borne in mind that Printed Papers, such as invoices, or proposals for insurance, or greeting or visiting cards, though admissible when filled up and sent to a specific person, are not admissible if sent, not filled up, to a person who is subsequently to put them to the use for which they are intended. Coupons, forms, cards, etc., bearing written answers to acrostics and guessing competitions and written communications indicating (whether by means of words, letters, marks or numbers), moves in a game of chess are inadmissible.

No Printed Paper may exceed 2 lb. in weight, and the limits of size are the same as for letters.

* The rates of postage in Eire differ from those in force in the United Kingdom.

* For definition of the expression Printed Papers see page 38 of P.O. Guide.

Envelopes or cards less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width are regarded as "embarrassing." See P.O. Guide, page 79, para. 11.

Circulars wholly or partly printed in imitation of typewriting, or reproduced from a type-written original by a mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies, are admissable at the Printed Paper Rate only if—

(a) They are handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office, Town Sub-Office, or certain of the more important Rural Sub-Offices.

(b) Special attention is drawn to the fact that they are printed or reproduced in imitation of type-writing.

(c) At least twenty packets each containing one copy or more are posted at the same time

(d) A form of declaration, P241B, is signed by the poster stating that all the copies of the circulars are identical in text so far as the portion printed or reproduced in imitation of typewriting is concerned, and bear nothing in writing which is not permitted by the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The circulars must be securely tied in bundles of convenient size with the addresses all faced one way. They will be liable to detention or to surcharge if subsequently found to infringe any of the regulations of the Printed Paper Rate.

The special conditions under which invoices, deeds, &c., may be sent as Printed Papers are given on pages 40 to 42 of the Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Samples.

Rates of Postage and Definition.

The prepaid rate on Sample Packets is:—

Not exceeding 4 oz. in weight (minimum charge)	1½d.
Between 4 oz. and 6 oz.	2d.
Between 6 oz. and 8 oz.	2½d.

The limit of weight is 8 oz.

The limits of size are the same as for letters.

The use of the Sample Post is restricted to bona-fide Trade Samples; and no article is admissible unless it be in fact a specimen of goods for sale. The specimen must be in itself without saleable value. The Sample Post must not be used, in any circumstances, for the conveyance of goods for sale or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity) sent from a dealer to an actual, or possible, purchaser, or for the transmission of articles from one private person to another.

The mode of packing and addressing is set forth at page 44 of the Post Office Guide.

Newspapers.

1. The prepaid rate of postage on copies of publications registered for transmission at the Inland Newspaper Rate, including any supplements thereto, is 1½d. for every copy not exceeding 4 oz. in weight, with a further charge of one halfpenny for every additional 4 oz. or fraction of 4 oz.

The rate is a rate per copy, and, if two or more copies are sent in a single packet, each copy is liable to the same postage as if posted separately. But in no case will a copy or a packet of such copies be chargeable with a higher rate than that chargeable on a printed paper of the same weight.

2. A copy or a packet of copies posted unpaid or underpaid is chargeable on delivery with double the deficient postage at the newspaper rate or printed papers rate, whichever involves the lower charge.

3. No copy or packet of copies may weigh more than 2 lbs., and the limits of size are the same as for letters.

4. Any publication coming within the following description can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper.

(a) The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

(b) It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom (including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man) or in any part of the British Dominions. The Postmaster-General may refuse to register as a newspaper a publication printed and published outside the United Kingdom unless arrangements have been made to his satisfaction for maintaining a responsible representative of the publication in the United Kingdom.

(c) It must be published in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

(d) The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date at the top of every subsequent page. This regulation applies also to "Tables of Contents" and "Indexes."

(e) Any supplement issued with a newspaper must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces, of paper, put together at some one part of the newspaper, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspaper or not, or wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the newspaper; it must in every case be published with the newspaper, and have the title of the newspaper printed at the top of every page, or at the top of every sheet or side on which any engraving, print, or lithograph appears. The supplement or supplements issued with any number of a registered newspaper may not exceed the newspaper itself in size or weight.

5. (a) A newspaper must be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends, which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

(b) Every copy should be so folded and covered (if posted in a cover) as to admit of the ready inspection of the title.

(c) No unregistered publication, and no article which is not part of a publication registered as a newspaper or a supplement thereto, may be enclosed in any packet sent at the newspaper rate.

(d) No copy of a newspaper sent by post may bear anything (not being part of the newspaper) except the name, address, and description, either of the sender or of the addressee, or both, with index or reference numbers and letters, the words "with compliments," a request for return in case of non-delivery, the title of the newspaper, and a reference to its registration for transmission by post, and a reference to any place in the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. The same regulations apply to any cover enclosing a copy of the newspaper.

(e) No supplement to a publication registered as a newspaper is admissible at the newspaper rate unless it be sent through the post with the publication to which it is a supplement.

(f) If any of the foregoing regulations is infringed the packet is charged either as an underpaid Printed Paper (if admissible at that rate), or an underpaid Letter, or is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged with a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever involves the lowest charge.

"Blind Literature."

Papers of any kind, periodicals, and books, impressed in "Braille" or other special type for the use of the blind, may be sent, prepaid, by Inland Post, at the following rates of postage:—

For a packet not exceeding 2 lb. in weight, ½d.; exceeding 2 lb. and not exceeding 5 lb., 1d.; exceeding 5 lb. and not exceeding 8 lb., 1½d.; exceeding 8 lb. and not exceeding 11 lb., 2d.; exceeding 11 lb. and not exceeding 15 lb. (maximum), 2½d.

Any such packet, if posted unpaid, is charged with double postage; if posted insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

To be entitled to transmission by this post a packet must—

1. Consist only of articles specially impressed as described above for the use of the blind, and may not contain any communication either in writing or printed in ordinary type, except the title, date of publication, serial number, names and addresses of printer and publisher, price, and table of contents of the book or periodical and any key to, or instructions for, the use of the special type, or any enclosure except a label for the return of the packet.

2. Bear on the outside the inscription "Articles for the Blind," and the written or printed name and address of the sender.

3. Be posted either without a cover, or in a cover open at both ends which can easily be removed for the purpose of examination.

4. Not exceed 15 lb. in weight. The limits of size are 2 feet in length, 18 inches in width and 18 inches in depth; or if it is made up in the form of a roll, the length plus twice the diameter should not exceed 3 feet 3 inches and the greatest dimension should not exceed 2 feet 8 inches.

If any of these conditions be infringed the packet will either be charged as an insufficiently paid printed paper or letter, or transferred to the Parcel Post, and charged with a fee of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage, whichever charge is the lower.

The use of printed labels with the necessary inscription is recommended.

PARCEL POST.

Chief Regulations.

1. The postage on a parcel must be prepaid and the parcel presented at the counter of a Post Office for transmission as a parcel. It must on no account be deposited in a letter box. Parcels may, however, be accepted by Rural Postmen.

In the latter case it must be kept distinct from the address to which the parcel is sent, and preferably written at right angles to the name and address of the addressee.

2. If posted irregularly it will—

(a) If fully prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post and admissible by that post be forwarded as a letter, printed paper, or newspaper.

(b) If insufficiently prepaid at the rate applicable to any other post, but otherwise admissible by that post, be charged with double the deficiency or with deficient postage at the Parcel Post rate together with a fine of a penny, whichever is the less.

7. Parcels are neither accepted for transmission nor delivered on Sundays.

Posting of Parcels in large numbers.

Any person who wishes to send off a large number of parcels, whether on a particular day or at regular or irregular intervals, will facilitate the work of despatch if he will give the office where they will be posted early information of the number of the parcels, their average weight, and the dates and times at which he proposes to post them. He will also meet the convenience of the Post Office by sending the parcels to the post in batches, beginning as early in the day as possible.

For Customs purposes, the sender of a parcel is required to furnish a declaration as to the contents and other particulars of the parcel upon an adhesive form which may be obtained at any Post Office. Parcels without declarations cannot be forwarded. The number and size of internal containers should be stated, and the nature and value of the separate articles should be indicated fully and correctly in the same manner as on the relative invoice and, as far as practicable, in accordance with the Eire Official Import List. The materials of which the articles are composed should be stated. General descriptions, such as "Clothing," "Boots," or "Cutlery" should not be used. The regulations explained under the headings "Customs Charges Abroad" at pages 163-164, and "Incoming Parcels—Customs Charges" at pages 164-165 of the Post Office Guide, apply to parcels sent to or from Eire.

The Cash on Delivery system does not extend to Eire in either direction.

For further particulars see P.O. Guide, pages 107 to 110.

On importation into Eire, certain articles produced or manufactured in the British Empire are entitled to preferential rates of Customs Duty if a certificate of origin in the form prescribed by the Eire Revenue Commissioners, and a copy of the invoice are enclosed in the parcel. The Customs Declaration must be conspicuously marked, "Preference claimed —Certificate of origin enclosed."

On payment of a special fee of 6d. the sender of a parcel may take upon himself at the time of posting the payment of the Customs and clearance charges ordinarily payable by the addressee, under conditions described at pages 163 and 164, P.O. Guide. A parcel intended to be sent under this arrangement must, as a rule, be handed in at a Head or Branch Post Office.

A special delivery fee of 6d., which must in all cases be paid by the addressee, is charged on every parcel sent to Eire which is not subject to Customs duty.

Restrictions on importation of certain articles into Eire—see page 60 of P.O. Guide.

Parcels to and from the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Parcels addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and the adjacent inhabited islets) are liable to Customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender of a parcel is required to make a declaration of contents, at the office of posting, upon an adhesive form provided for the purpose. A fee of 6d. (1s. when the duty exceeds 10s.) for clearance through the Customs is charged on every dutiable parcel exchanged with the Channel Islands.

Parcels exchanged between the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man are liable to Customs examination, but the sender of the parcel is not required to furnish a declaration of contents. Parcels containing dutiable articles are liable to be detained by the Customs at the port of entry until the Customs regulations are complied with. Parcels which are sent in contravention of the Customs regulations are liable to confiscation, and the senders to prosecution by the Board of Customs.

Postage Forward Parcel Service. Description.*

Under this service a firm which is prepared to receive parcels from customers resident in Great Britain or Northern Ireland and pay the appropriate postage, may do so, provided special arrangements are made with the Post Office beforehand and labels of a special design (see page 61 of P.O. Guide) are used.

Conditions.

1. Before any firm can use this service a licence must be obtained through the local Head Postmaster.

2. The licensee will be asked to deposit in advance a sum of money sufficient to cover the probable amount of the charges which will accrue during a week or month, at the end of which period an account will be rendered and the licensee will be required to pay the amount of the charges which have accrued. The minimum deposit is £2.

3. Complete printed proofs of the adhesive labels with which the licensee intends to provide his customers must be forwarded to the local Head Postmaster for approval. The labels, which must not be less than 5¼ inches in length by 3¼ in width, must be printed in black on white paper and the form of wording and design must conform to the pattern indicated on the leaflet (P.P. 12 W.). [The design of the label is on the lines of the design used in the Business Reply Card and Envelope service (see page 52, P.O. Guide), but differs from that label in one or two important particulars.]

* This service does not extend to Eire.

4. A fee of ½d., in addition to the normal parcel postage, will be charged on each parcel sent by post to the licensee.

5. In other respects the parcels will be subject to the general regulations and rules of the Post Office relating to the Inland Parcel Post.

Parcels addressed to a Post Office to be called for.

See under "General Regulations"—(Poste Restante).

Re-direction of Parcels.

7. Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to additional postage at the prepaid rate for each re-direction, except where both the original address and the substituted address are either served from the same delivery office or are within the same Town Delivery Area, and where re-direction is made within the period of free re-direction allowed for other classes of correspondence (see "General Regulations"). A parcel will not, however, be delivered free of charge to a person who has previously refused to accept it, and for re-issue from a Returned Letter Office a second postage is invariably charged.

Undelivered Parcels.

8. If an undelivered parcel bears on the cover the full name and address of the sender it is returned to him at once and unopened. If not, it is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose, and if it contains the name and address of the sender it is returned to him.

Undelivered parcels which do not contain the address of the sender and are not applied for are liable to be disposed of after three months. Parcels containing perishable articles will be dealt with as may be requisite.

Make-up.

Letters and Postal Packets of every kind, especially parcels, must be so made up as not only to preserve the contents from loss or damage in the post, but also not to injure other packets or any officer of the Post Office. If insecurely packed, they are liable to be stopped. The public are warned that the transmission by post is prohibited of insecurely packed packets which are likely to injure other postal packets in course of conveyance or any Officer of the Post Office, and that the senders are liable to penalties under the Post Office Acts, 1908-1935.

Any article sent by Letter Post which cannot from the nature of its contents or excess of size be transmitted thereby is, if admissible by Parcel Post, transferred to that Post, and treated and charged as a parcel posted out of course, i.e., charged with the deficient postage at the Parcel Post rate together with a fine of a penny (see P.O. Guide, page 36). If inadmissible by Parcel Post, the packet is liable to be detained and dealt with as the Postmaster-General may direct.

Any packet, especially any letter, containing anything of a fragile nature should be marked or labelled "Fragile."

Nothing inflammable, corrosive, or explosive, may be sent by post, nor anything having an odour so strong as to affect the contents of other packets in the Mails.

There are special regulations governing the sending of special articles through the post, e.g., eggs, fish, game, liquids, semi-liquids, flowers, glass, etc., etc. Full particulars will be found at page 68, Post Office Guide, or from a leaflet, P.P.24W., obtainable on application to the Head Post Office.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.

See under "General Regulations."

*Cash on Delivery Services.
Letter Post and Parcel Post.

The value of an article sent by Registered Letter Post or by Registered or Unregistered Parcel Post can, on certain conditions, be collected from the addressee by the Post Office and remitted to the sender by means of a Special Order. (The service is also applicable, with certain limitations set forth in the P.O. Guide, page 109, to consignments conveyed by Railway.) A parcel need not be registered, but may be registered if desired; all packets sent by Letter Post must, however, be registered.

Packets or parcels may be posted at any Money Order Post Office for delivery at any address in the United Kingdom including the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man. The service does not apply to Eire in either direction.

The amount to be collected on delivery, called the Trade Charge, must not exceed £40 and must not contain a fractional part of 1d.

A C. O. D. packet or parcel is normally delivered by postman in the ordinary way. If, however, the amount of the Trade Charge exceeds £10, the packet or parcel is kept at the Post Office to be called for, notice of its arrival being sent to the addressee; and the addressee is required to pay the Trade Charge at the Post Office, when the packet or parcel will be handed over, or subsequently delivered by postman. Post Office servants are strictly forbidden to give up a C.O.D. packet or parcel, or to open it at the request of the addressee, or to allow the addressee to open it, until the Trade Charge and any other charges due have been paid. No receipt is given for a Trade Charge. A Trade Charge, once collected, is in no circumstances refunded to the addressee. A C.O.D. packet or parcel may be sent by Express Services, but if the Trade Charge exceeds £10, only the notification of arrival will be delivered by Express Service in the first place.

The Cash on Delivery Fees, which are additional to the ordinary postage and the registration fee, are as follows :—

The sender must write in ink on the cover of the packet or parcel :—

(1) The name and address of the addressee,

(2) His own name and address,

(3) The amount of the Trade Charge

For this purpose the Post Office provides, on request, an adhesive address label. The sender must fill up in ink the special Trade Charge Form which will be handed to him.

The packet or parcel must be large enough to afford space for all the necessary particulars to be indicated clearly on one side of the cover : it is not permissible to give them on a tie-on address label. Where, however, one of the smaller sizes of registered envelope sold by the Post Office is used with the address label supplied by the Post Office, or a similar label, the label must be affixed to the back of the envelope, and the address of the packet must be written on the front also.

The stamp or stamps in prepayment of the Cash on Delivery Fee must be affixed to the counterfoil of the Trade Charge Form in the space provided.

A certificate of posting will be given for registered packets and parcels and, if desired, for unregistered parcels, as in the case of an ordinary parcel.

The letters C.O.D. should be written by the counter officer in front of the address on the certificate, and the sender should satisfy himself that this has been done before accepting the certificate.

The Trade Charge will be remitted to the sender of the parcel by means of a " crossed " Order. This Order is not negotiable, but special arrangements are made to meet the convenience of payees who have no banking account.

For further particulars and for details of the application of C.O.D. system to consignments conveyed by railway, see Post Office Guide, page 109.

Certificates of Posting of Unregistered or Uninsured Correspondence (except Parcels).

Any person who desires proof that an unregistered letter, letter card, post card, printed paper or newspaper has been posted to a particular person should hand in the letter or other article at a Post Office and ask for a certificate of posting. The fee is ½d., payable by means of a postage stamp, which must be affixed by the sender to the form of certificate.

A single certificate in respect of several articles of the same kind posted at one and the same time can be obtained at any of the larger Head Post Offices, and at any other Post Office by arrangement, if a list of the names and addresses borne by the articles be presented with them. The fee will be ½d. for each article.

It must be clearly understood that articles in respect of which these certificates are issued, are not registered and will not be checked in the post, but will be treated as if they had been posted in a letter-box ; that in the event of loss, damage, or delay, the certificate will confer no title to compensation ; and that it furnishes no proof of the nature of the contents.

Addresses and Petitions to King and Parliament.

Petitions and Addresses forwarded to the King are exempt from postage. Members of either House of Parliament may receive by post Petitions and Addresses to His Majesty, and Petitions for presentation to either House of Parliament, not exceeding 2 lb. in weight, exempt from postage, provided such Petitions and Addresses be sent without covers, or in open covers, or in wrappers open at the ends. This exemption applies only to an original signed Petition or Address, and not to any copy thereof.

Parliamentary Notices Jury Summonses.

Particulars as to the conditions under which these documents may be served by post may be obtained from The Postal Services Department, General Post Office, London, E.C.1, or from the Postmaster at any Head Post Office.

Ballot-Papers.

No postage is payable on Ballot-papers, Poll-books, and other documents which have been used at a Parliamentary Election, and are presented at a Post Office by a Returning Officer for transmission by post to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. When so presented, an acknowledgment in writing of their receipt must be given by the Postmaster.

The above does not apply to Ballot-papers or other documents used at County Council, District Council, or Parish Council Elections, or at any other Elections ; in any such case, if any documents are sent by post the proper postage must be prepaid.

Postage Stamps, &c.

Postage stamps of the following values are issued :—½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., 3d., 4d., 5d., 6d., 7d., 8d., 9d., 10d., 1s., 2s. 6d., 5s., and 10s.

Registered Letter Envelopes, Post Cards, Envelopes embossed with 2½d. and 1d. stamps, Letter Cards, Newspaper Wrappers, and Books at 5s. containing eighteen 2½d. and six each of 2d. and ½d. stamps; at 2s. 6d. containing six 2½d. and six each of 2d. and ½d. stamps. Rolls of ½d., 1d., 1½d., 2d., 2½d., and 3d. postage stamps are also issued by the Postmaster-General for sale to the public. These rolls are made up in two different ways—viz., with the stamps reeled lengthwise and reeled sideways.

An item not stocked at any particular office will be specially obtained on a few days' notice.

Prepayment of Postage in Money.

At the Head Offices in Edinburgh, Glasgow (and at certain Branch Offices in Glasgow), and certain other large towns in the provinces, any Inland postal packets may be prepaid in money, provided that the articles are chargeable with a uniform rate of postage, that the amount paid (including any registration fees) is in no case less than 10s., and that, except in the case of parcels, which must be handed in separately from other postal packets, the packets are tied in bundles of 60 (or in the case of bulky packets, in bundles of a convenient size, each containing 10 packets or a multiple of 10), with the addresses arranged in the same direction. Prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly in stamps, and the money must be paid at the time the packets are handed in at the Post Office.*

It is a great advantage to the Post Office to receive these special postings, especially when in large numbers, early in the day. The hours of posting are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. or 4 p.m., as may be announced locally.

Postage may also be prepaid in money at many of the smaller towns in the provinces (including all Head Post Towns) provided that at least two clear days' notice (exclusive of Sundays and public holidays) be given in writing, and that the conditions of posting as described above be complied with. Applications should be sent to the Finance Branch, G.P.O., Edinburgh, and must state—(1) The name of the Post Office at which the articles will be handed in, (2) The exact date of posting, and (3) The approximate number and rate of postage of the articles to be posted.

The Postmaster will arrange without charge (1) collections of ordinary letters, postcards, printed papers and so on, when the number amounts to 1,000 or the total postage amounts to £10; (2) regular collections of ordinary parcels if there are at least 10 at a time or 50 a week; and (3) special collections of ordinary parcels where the number at one time is 50 or more. Application may be made in person, in writing, by telephone, or by special form which may be obtained on request. If possible, at least three hours' notice should be given. Applications made by letter should be marked "Immediate—van order."

Articles for prepayment in money cannot be received on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or Bank Holidays in England, and on New Year's Day or other Public Holidays in Scotland.

Deposit Accounts.

Persons who regularly make large use of the Post may, by depositing a sum of money sufficient to cover postage for a week, month, or other convenient period, and by undertaking to pay at the end of such period the amount of postage due, be relieved not only of the trouble of affixing postage stamps to Inland packets, but also of paying postage in money at the actual time of posting.

The regulations regarding prepayment in money apply where postage is to be charged to a Deposit Account.

Application to open a Deposit Account should be made to the Head Postmaster.

*Business Reply Cards and Envelopes.

Description.

Under this service a person who wishes to obtain a reply from a client without putting him to the expense of paying postage, may enclose in his communication an unstamped reply card, envelope or folder of the special pattern shown in Post Office Guide, page 52. The client can post the card, envelope or folder in the ordinary way without a stamp; and the sender will pay the charges on all the replies he receives. Delivery will normally be effected once daily, by the second distribution.

Conditions.

1. Before any person uses reply cards, &c., under this system, he must obtain a licence from the Head Postmaster of the District in which he resides.

2. The licensee will be required to deposit in advance a sum of money (not less than 10s.) sufficient to cover the probable amount of the charges which will accrue during a reasonable period and when the sum so paid is exhausted, the licensee will be required to make a further payment to renew his credit.

3. Complete printed proofs of the cards envelopes or folders, gummed labels, or of the advertisement embodying the label design which the licensee intends to use must be forwarded to the local Head Postmaster for approval and, as regards the form of wording, must conform to a specified pattern—see Post

* Persons tendering packets to be prepaid in money will be required to sign a declaration that none of them contains any document the transmission of which by post is prohibited. They may also be required to open one of the packets in the presence of the officer to whom they are tendered.

* This service does not extend to Eire.

Office Guide, page 52—and be printed in black :—

(a) The name and full postal address of the licensee must be printed parallel to the length of the card, &c., below the panel containing the Licence Number.

(b) A space of not less than 1¼ inches must be left between the top edge of the card, &c., and the top of the "Licence Number" panel.

Inland Revenue Business.

Inland Revenue and Fee Stamps and Forms.

The proper stamp duties payable on legal documents are specified in the Stamp Act; and if any doubt or difficulty arises, the public should apply to the Board of Inland Revenue, Somerset House, London, W.C.2; in Scotland to the Comptroller, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, 1 (in Northern Ireland to the Controller of Stamping, Ministry of Finance, Belfast) for an opinion on the subject. The Post Office cannot undertake through its servants to inform the public what particular stamps should be placed on any legal document.

The hours of sale of Inland Revenue and Fee Stamps are generally 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., but are extended to meet public requirements in certain towns. An application made outside the regular hours for stamps which are urgently needed is complied with if possible.

Postage stamps issued in the reigns of Queen Victoria and King Edward VII. are no longer valid for the prepayment of postage and are not re-purchased by the Post Office.

Use of Cut-out Postage Stamps.

Embossed or impressed postage stamps cut out of envelopes, post cards, letter cards, newspaper wrappers, or telegram forms issued by the Post Office of the United Kingdom may be used as adhesive stamps in payment of postage or of telegraph charges provided they are not imperfect, mutilated, or defaced in any way. Embossed or impressed Inland Revenue stamps cannot be used in payment of postage, and stamps indicating the payment of a registration fee may only be used for registered correspondence.

Imperfect or Defaced Stamps.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps. Stamps are considered defaced when marked on the face with any written, printed, or stamped characters. Stamps may, however, be perforated with initials (but not with names or trade marks) provided that the perforating holes are no larger than those dividing one stamp from another in a sheet of stamps. The work of perforating stamps with initials is left to private enterprise. Any Officer of the Post Office who undertakes the business does so in his private capacity and not as an agent of the Postmaster-General, who has no responsibility in the matter.

Payment will be made by means of an order sent by post direct to the applicant from the Office to which he forwards the form.

Any society or person wishing to adopt this arrangement should make written application to the Accountant General's Department, G.P.O., London, E.C.1, enclosing a specimen of the book, card, or form proposed to be used.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Inland.

Addressing Correspondence.

Every address should be clearly written, and above it a clear space should be left for postage stamps (which should be affixed to the right-hand top corner of the cover), and for post-marks. Telephone numbers and abbreviated addresses registered for telegrams should not be used.

The address should include in all cases :—

1. Name of addressee.
2. Number (or if there is no number the name) of the house.
3. Name of street or road, &c.
4. Name of Sub-District, if any.
5. Name of the place of destination.
6. Name of the County where necessary.

The Post Office cannot undertake to correct or complete wrong or insufficient addresses.

Embarrassing Postal Packets.

Postal packets of such a form or so made up for transmission by post as to be likely, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, to embarrass the officers of the Post Office in dealing with the packets in the post, are prohibited from transmission by post. The following are instances of packets which are held to contravene this regulation and are liable to be refused or withheld from delivery :—

1. A packet having anything printed or otherwise impressed upon or attached to the address side which, either by tending to prevent the easy and quick reading of the address, or by inconvenient proximity to the postage stamps, or in any other way, is likely to impede the officers of the Post Office in dealing with it. Cards, envelopes, labels and wrappers are, however, admitted if the writing or printing is confined to the left-hand half of the address side, the right-hand half being reserved exclusively for the postage stamps and the address.

2. A packet bearing on its address side an adhesive label or printed design either resembling a postage stamp in shape or size or in the form of a frame for a postage stamp.

3. A packet having a postage stamp affixed elsewhere than at the right-hand top corner of the address side.

4. A packet having its address parallel to the breadth instead of to the length of the envelope.

5. A pictorial card, or packet containing a collection of views of places, which does not conform to the following conditions, viz. :— It must not be less than four inches in length by two and three-quarter inches in width, and must, whenever possible, be square or oblong in shape. If an irregular shape be used, the lower edge and the left-hand edge should be straight and at right angles to one another, but those edges may be serrated provided that the packet will stand upright upon them when sorted with other articles.

6. A packet or envelope of a red colour (except in the case of a letter addressed to a renter of a Private Box for night use and marked specially "Private Box Night Delivery," see page 86 of P.O. Guide), or of another colour likely to cause strain on the eyes of the officers of the Post Office. Cards, labels, or envelopes should be white, but objection is not taken to pale shades of buff, yellow, green or blue. It is essential, however, that the ink used on coloured paper should be in sharp contrast with the tint of the paper. The foregoing also applies to the visible portion of enclosures in envelopes with transparent or "cut-out" panels.

7. A packet enclosed in a wholly transparent envelope.

8 (I). A packet enclosed in an envelope with a transparent panel or a "cut-out" panel which does not conform to the following conditions, viz. :—

(a) The panel must extend parallel to the length of the envelope.

(b) A sufficient space, 1½ inches, must be left above the panel for the postage stamp and the date-stamp impression.

(c) A "cut-out" panel must not exceed 3½ inches in length by 1¼ inches in width.

(d) No writing or printing other than the address may be displayed through the panel, and the address must appear through the panel in such a manner as to be read with reasonable facility.

(e) The enclosures must be so folded that they cannot move about in the envelopes, and thus cause the address to be hidden.

8 (II). A packet enclosed in an envelope with an open ("cut-out") panel which :—

(i) Exceeds 3½ inches in length by 1¼ inches in width;

(ii) Does not comply with the requirements shown in (a), (b), (c) and (d) in paragraph I. above.

(Envelopes with "cut-out" panels are not allowed in any circumstances in the International Service.)

9. A packet having an opening large enough to be likely to entrap small letters or post-cards conveyed in the same bag. Objection is not raised to the use for the open post of a small envelope not exceeding 3½ inches in depth with a "tuck-in" flap along the top not exceeding 6 inches in width nor to the use of any other envelope with a "tuck-in" flap if the opening does not exceed 4½ inches in width. If larger envelopes are necessary, posters are recommended to use specially-shaped flaps (e.g., in the nature of a tongue) which can be tucked into a narrow slit, or some form of blunt metal fastener (not a paper clip) which will not interfere with the easy examination of the contents of the envelope or injure other packets or the hands of the sorters, or a fastening of string which can be easily untied. If metal paper fasteners (paper clips are inadmissible) are used, they must be blunt and must be well pressed down to obviate risk of injury to the hands of the Post Office staff.

10. A card, envelope or folder which is less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width or a packet of such small dimensions as to be likely to impede the officers of the Post Office in dealing with it in the post.

11. Postcards, and other cards sent unenclosed, must not be less than $\frac{1}{100}$ inch thick.

Railway Parcels.

A parcel intended for transmission by railway may be handed in at an Express Delivery Post Office for immediate conveyance by a Post Office Messenger to a Railway Station for dispatch by train on payment of the Express Fee of 6d. a mile, together with the cost of a special conveyance if necessary. If the messenger is kept waiting at the Station for more than 10 minutes in disposing of the parcel, the Sender will become liable for the waiting fee of 2d. for each 10 minutes or portion thereof beyond the first 10 minutes.

A Railway Parcel must contain nothing in the nature of a Letter. The Sender may also pay the amount of the Railway charges for the conveyance of the Parcel, and the Messenger will hand the sum received to the servant of the Railway Company.

The sender may also arrange, by preparing and despatching a telegram to the delivery post office, for a Post Office messenger to meet the train at the station of arrival and deliver the parcel, in which case the words "Express, to be handed to Post Office messenger at .....Station" must be written on the cover. The express fee to be prepaid by stamps upon the cover will be at the rate of 6d. per mile for the distance from the nearest express delivery office to the station of address, and from that station to the house of the addressee.

Redirection.

Any kind of postal packet may be re-directed to the same addressee at another address, either by an officer of the Post Office, or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, under the following rules:—

Letters, Post-cards, Printed Papers, and Newspapers are re-transmitted by post without additional charge. In the case of re-direction by the addressee's agent the packet must be reposted not later than the day after delivery (Sundays and public holidays not being counted), and must not previous to re-direction be opened or tampered with. If an adhesive label be used for the purpose of indicating the new address, the name of the original addressee must not be obscured. If the name is obscured, the packet will be liable to surcharge as unpaid.

Re-directed packets reposted later than the day after delivery will be liable to charge at the prepaid rate. Any packet which appears to have been opened or tampered with will be chargeable as freshly posted and unpaid.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed package at the second address.

Parcels.—See under "Inland Parcel Post."

Registered Postal Packets.

Any such packet on being re-directed must not be dropped into a letter box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. No additional registration fee will be charged if the packet is presented for re-registration not later than the day after delivery; but if it is presented after that time it will be treated as freshly posted, and a fresh registration fee will be payable. As regards postage, the rules given above apply.

If an inland registered packet is re-directed to an address abroad, it becomes liable to the regulations and limitations in force in the International Service (see page 180 of the Post Office Guide).

If any registered packet when re-directed, instead of being given back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, is dropped into a letter box, it is treated in all respects as a letter intended for registration but irregularly posted (see page 90, Post Office Guide).

Notices of removal and applications for letters, &c., to be re-directed, must in all cases be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters to be re-directed are addressed. Printed forms can be obtained from the local Post Office, and, when filled up and signed, should be sent to the local delivery office or handed to the postman; but it is desirable, for the prevention of mistakes, that persons who are about to change their residence should inform their correspondents beforehand of their intention, so that their letters may be directed in the first instance to their new address.

Redirection of letters for the first six months after removal is undertaken gratuitously. The service may be continued for an additional twelve months upon payment of a fee of 1s. for each name recorded. Thereafter the record of removal will be maintained only as long as an annual fee of 5s. for each name recorded is paid. In the case of various members of one family removing to one address and bearing the same name, one removal fee only is charged. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels and telegrams may be re-directed.

The Post Office does not undertake to re-direct when the letters or other postal packets can be re-directed at the place of address. It does not, for example, re-direct postal packets addressed to a person who has temporarily left his house, unless the house be left uninhabited, addressed to clubs, hotels, boarding houses, or lodgings; or addressed to any premises occupied by two or more persons where the letters are delivered by postman into a common letter-box or to a common agent. When business premises are temporarily left unoccupied—as, for example, during a "wake" or other local holiday—re-direction is only undertaken on payment of a fee of 5s. for each period.

Special Delivery of Correspondence.

To Residents in Towns.

On ordinary week-days, and on Bank Holidays in England and Ireland, and on the equivalent Local Holidays in Scotland, correspondence for persons residing within a town-delivery area will only be delivered free at the Post Office to Private Box holders and persons entitled to use the Poste Restante. Other persons desiring to obtain correspondence addressed to them must in each case pay a special fee of 3d.; and this fee must be paid for the search (which will only be made if the correspondence for delivery is readily accessible at the time) whether correspondence be found or not. If postal packets addressed to a person at two addresses (for instance, a business address and a private address) are required, and search has to be made on different postmen's walks, two fees will be charged.

Residents in Towns may also obtain correspondence without charge (a) when a delivery by postman is regularly suspended on a local half-holiday, or (b) when a delivery to callers is duly sanctioned and publicly announced.

A person residing in a Rural District may on application at the Post Office from which his letters are delivered obtain, free of charge, anything arriving by mails not connecting with a delivery by postman at his place of residence, or anything which the postman has been unable to deliver, provided that it is readily accessible when applied for. He may obtian packets in other circumstances, (a) if he is entitled to use the Poste Restante, (b) if he rents a Private Box or pays for a Private Bag service, and arranges to call for his Private Bag, or (c) on payment of a special fee of 3d. (if postal packets for delivery are readily accessible), the fee being payable whether anything be found or not.

A resident in a rural district may also, on payment of a special fee of 3d., have a packet withheld from a particular delivery to be called for at the Post Office.

Delivery to Callers: Registered Packets.

Registered packets may be retained at the Post Office to be called for on payment of a fee of 15s. a year.

Delivery at another Address.

It is the rule to deliver all postal packets as addressed, but by payment of a fee of 30s. a year a person can have packets addressed to his office delivered at his private address, or vice versa, provided that both addresses are served from the same delivery office. If the addresses are served from different delivery offices, a fee of £3 will be payable. Diversion of postal packets from one business address to another business address in the occupation of the same firm or company is undertaken on similar conditions.

*Private Boxes and Bags.

A Private Box, into which, according to the fee paid, (a) all letters and postal packets other than parcels, or (b) parcels only, or (c) letters and postal packets, including parcels, on hand for the renter will, except on Sundays, be sorted to be fetched by him, may be rented at the Post Office from which the delivery for the renter's house is made. A Private Bag, to be fetched by messenger from a Post Office in a Town District or in a Rural District to be either fetched by messenger or delivered at the renter's house by a Post Office servant can also be rented at any such Post Office, and into it, according to the fee paid, as in respect of Boxes, either letters or parcels or both letters and parcels on hand for the renter will be sorted. A Private Bag is locked at the Post Office before being sent out for delivery. It may be used also for posting. The Bag, which must be provided with a lock, is not supplied by the Post Office.

* A leaflet P37W, containing the general regulations can be had at any Head Post Office.

Application for these facilities should be made through the Head Postmaster of the District, to whom all fees should be paid.

Poste Restante.

Postal packets of any kind to be called for are, as a rule, taken in at all Post Offices except Town Sub-Offices. The words "to be called for" or "Poste Restante" should appear in the address. Such packets are retained at the Poste Restante for one fortnight—foreign letters, two months—unless they bear a request for their return within a specified time, which may not exceed the periods mentioned above. If not called for by the end of that time, they are put in course for return to the sender—see under "Undelivered Correspondence." But if a letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship, expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

The Poste Restante is intended solely for the accommodation of strangers and travellers, and even they may not use the Poste Restante for more than three months.

Postal Packets addressed to initials, or to fictitious names, or to a Christian name without a surname, are not taken in at the Poste Restante, but are treated as undelivered and dealt with accordingly.

Postal packets may not be re-directed from one Poste Restante to another Poste Restante in the same town, or from a private address to a Poste Restante in the same town.

Public Holidays.

In Scotland on Sacramental Fast Days (when observed as local holidays), and on Holidays fixed by Local Authorities, there is generally only one delivery of letters and other postal packets by Postman.

In Scotland on New Year's Day there is only one delivery of letters and other postal packets, and the hours for public business are restricted to those which obtain on Sundays. Money Order, Postal Order, National Savings Certificate, Savings Bank, Pension and Allowance, Parcel Post, and Licence Business is not transacted, but Inland Telegraph Money Orders are issued and paid as shewn further on in this Appendix under the heading, "Telegraph Money Orders," and in certain rural areas, packets for registration and parcels are not accepted from the public by postmen on that day.

Undelivered Correspondence.

An undelivered inland postal packet which is chargeable with a postage exceeding 2d. or more, whether a letter, newspaper or parcel, if it bears on the outside the full name and address of the sender, is returned direct and unopened. Any such other undelivered packet is opened by an officer deputed for the purpose; and if it contains the sender's address it is returned to him. An undelivered postal packet, other than a parcel—see under "Inland Parcel Post"—which cannot be returned to the sender, and does not contain any enclosure of importance, is destroyed.

Undelivered post cards, printed papers, and newspapers, chargeable with a postage not exceeding two pence, are dealt with as follows:

(1) Those bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are sent back direct from the office of destination, and are delivered to the sender on payment of a second postage.

(2) Those not bearing on the outside the name and address of the sender, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, are destroyed.

Prohibited Articles.

It is prohibited to send by post:—

Betting Advertisements if relating to an illegal business.

Contraband.

Counterfeit bank or currency notes and postage stamps.

Dangerous articles (including explosives, certain inflammable, corrosive, noxious or deleterious, or otherwise harmful substances, sharp instruments not properly protected).

Filth.

Fortune Telling advertisements.

Indecent, obscene or grossly offensive communications, marks, designs, prints, photographs or other articles.

Living creatures with the exception of (a) bees, leeches and silk-worms so packed as to avoid all risk of injury to Officers of the Post Office or to other packets, or (b) animals which can be accepted for express delivery under the Express Messenger service (see P.O. Guide, page 95).

Lottery tickets as advertisements.

Moneylenders' circulars if sent unsolicited.

Packets bearing previously used postage stamps or words, marks or designs which are unauthorised and which may reasonably lead the recipient to believe that the packet is sent on His Majesty's Service.

Packets consisting of or containing two or more postal packets (of the same or of different descriptions) addressed to different persons at different addresses.

Packets embarrassing to Post Office Staff i.e. in unsuitable wrappers, etc. (see P.O. Guide, page 78).

Packets inadequately packed, which are likely to damage other postal packets or cause injury to Officers of the Post Office (see P.O. Guide, page 77).

The transmission by post of advertisements relating to the treatment of venereal disease or to any preparation for its prevention, cure or relief, unless addressed to duly qualified medical practitioners or chemists is also prohibited.

Prohibited articles if tendered for transmission, will be refused, or, if detected in transit, detained. They are liable to be dealt with in such a manner as the Postmaster-General may direct, and the sender is in some cases liable to prosecution.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF LETTERS AND PARCELS.

(For full particulars regarding the various services under this heading, see Post Office Guide, pages 12 and 93 to 99.

Postal Packets, Letters, and Parcels, are delivered by Express Messenger under the following Services, viz. :—

By Special Messenger all the way (at request of sender).

Under this service, Messages, Letters, Parcels, and other articles are conveyed the entire distance by Special Messenger (at request of sender.)

Charges.

For a Letter, Packet, or other Article, the Express Fee (inclusive of charges for omnibus, tramcar, railway, &c.) is

For every mile or part of a mile, - 6d.

(Ordinary postage is not charged).

If the sender desires, or it is otherwise necessary, that a cab or other special conveyance be used throughout (i.e., from the place of posting to the place of delivery), the actual fare or cost of the conveyance must be paid in addition to the mileage fee.

After receipt at Office of Delivery (at request of sender).

Under this Service, Letters and Parcels are forwarded by Mail in the regular course of post, and on arrival at the office of delivery (if that office is a Telegraph Office), are sent out by Express Messenger.

Charges.

For delivery from the normal delivery office (except in Eire), the special delivery fee is sixpence, in addition to the full ordinary postage.

For Eire the fee of 6d. covers one mile. Beyond one mile, additional charges at Eire inland express rate, are collected from the addressee.

After receipt at Office of Delivery (at request of addressee).

Persons or Firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind, in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special Messenger on payment of the following fees :—

The full Express fee of 6d. a mile as for one packet, and one penny for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. If the letters or parcels have to be searched for at more than one delivery, a charge of 3d. is made for each extra search in addition to the Express fees levied when the special delivery takes place.

Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at most Post Offices. Application may also be made by Telephone.

The applications should be addressed to the Postmaster or "Chief Officer on duty" at the Post Office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered. Where possible, it should be delivered at the Office by hand; but where this cannot be done it may be handed in at any Post Office or posted in any Letter Box in the District served from the office. In the latter case the postage should be prepaid by means of a 2½d. stamp affixed to the outside of the form. Care should be taken, however, that the application reaches the Office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery commences.

The Express Fee on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the Special Messenger on delivery.

If no postal packet for the address given is found, a special Messenger will be sent to inform the applicant to that effect, and the Express Fee will be retained to pay for this service.

In cases where a regular delivery by Special Messenger is required, either on one or more days of the week, or of letters, &c., arriving by particular Inland or Foreign Mails, it will be sufficient if only one Form of Application, altered to meet the requirements, is filled up and left with the Postmaster. In such cases the whole of the charges will be collected on the delivery of the Postal Packets.

Letters for Express Delivery on Sunday (at request of Sender).

The special delivery service is available only at the following towns and to the extent indicated below :—*Edinburgh, *Dublin, †Belfast, Birmingham, *Bristol, *Cardiff, *Cork, Glasgow, *†Hull, *Leeds, *Leicester, Liverpool, London, Manchester, *Newcastle-

* The service to and from Dublin and Cork is not in operation with the Offices marked with an asterisk.

† The service is not in operation from Belfast to Hull on-Tyne, *Nottingham, *Sheffield, *Southampton.

Any letter or postal packet other than a parcel will be accepted on Saturday at these offices for delivery in any of the towns named, but not elsewhere. Delivery will be effected during the hours when that office is open for telegraph business.

The service is also available on the Thursday preceding Good Friday, at the Provincial Head Offices mentioned above, to secure delivery in London on Good Friday.

Charges for Special Delivery on Sundays.

In addition to the full ordinary postage a special fee of 1s. 6d. is payable, which will cover delivery at any of the towns indicated (except Dublin and Cork) including, in the case of London, all the Head and Sub Districts. At Dublin and Cork, if the address is beyond a mile, an additional charge, at the Eire inland express rate, will be collected from the addressee.

Use of Telephones for sending Express, Air Mail, and Ordinary Letters.

A subscriber may telephone messages to many Post Offices to be written down and dealt with as Express letters, Air Mail, or Ordinary letters. Similarly the public may dictate letters from any Telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted.

This service enables a subscriber or caller to secure almost immediate delivery of a letter at a cost which (within certain limits as to distance) is substantially less than the cost of a telegram of similar length.

Charges.

The charges for a telephoned express letter or air mail letter are :—

(1) The local or trunk fee for the telephone call made to the Telegraph or Post Office at which the letter is written down ; plus

(2) the charge for writing down the message, namely, 3d. for the first 30 words, including the address, and 1d. for every 10 words or part thereof in excess of 30 ; plus

(3) the charge for delivery, which is 6d. a mile or part thereof for express letters, or, for a telephoned ordinary or air letter, the appropriate (ordinary or air) postage rounded up to the next penny in the case of calls from unattended call offices and from subscribers with coin-box installations.

This service renders it possible to dictate a message to a distant port or town and thus catch a foreign mail or a local delivery for which the medium of the ordinary post would have been too late.

Procedure.

A subscriber not renting a coin-box who wishes to dictate an Express, Air Mail or Ordinary Letter should make a call to the telephone number of the Post Office at which it is desired that the message should be written down and from which it will be delivered or transferred to the post. On connexion being obtained, the nature of the service desired should be explained.

A subscriber renting a coin-box or a caller using a Call Office should ask the local exchange for the service desired by name, viz., Express or Air Mail or Ordinary Letter Service, as the case may be, and ask to be connected with the Office at which it is desired that the message should be written down and from which it will be delivered or transferred to the post. It is not necessary to give any telephone number.

In the case of Telephone Express Letters, the charge for express delivery is calculated on the distance traversed by the messenger and it is, therefore, advisable that the appropriate Office nearest to the address should be chosen.

Any person receiving an express letter which has been telephoned, may employ the delivering messenger for the purpose of sending another express letter back to the Post Office to be telephoned to the sender of the original message. For this service the charges are (1) the express letter mileage rate to the Post Office ; plus (2) the appropriate telephone charge (including a call office fee) from the Post Office to the place of destination.

A telephone subscriber may obtain the services of an express messenger by telephoning to the nearest Post Office. The charges for this service are calculated on the whole distance travelled by the messenger from the Post Office, at the rate of 6d. a mile, or part thereof. If the messenger is required to conduct a person from place to place, a time charge of 2d. is made for every ten minutes, instead of the distance charge.

For further details of this service, see Post Office Guide, pages 534-536, or enquire at any Post Office.

Telex Service.

This service is provided by means of a teleprinter, a machine resembling in appearance and operation a typewriter and capable of being operated by a typist after a little practice. A telephone subscriber in an area where the service is available can, by means of the teleprinter, get into instant typewritten communication with another subscriber similarly equipped and also with the Post Office for the purpose of sending and receiving telegrams.

To communicate with another telex subscriber a telephone call is made. When an answer is received the teleprinters are switched in. Then either subscriber can reproduce a message on the distant teleprinter simply by typewriting it on his own machine. The message and its acknowledgment are typed simultaneously by both machines.

Further particulars of the service and details of the charges can be obtained from the Regional Director, London Telecommunications Region (telephone number NATional 1221) or the local Telephone Manager.

AIR MAIL SERVICES.*

Letter Air Mails.

1. Any kind of letter packet may be sent by Air Mail, including small packets for those countries which participate in the small packets service (see pages 130-132, P.O. Guide), but printed papers, commercial papers, and samples must be prepaid at the rates for letters except where otherwise indicated in the Air Mail leaflet.* The limits of size and maximum weight are the same as for similar correspondence sent by ordinary post. Air Mail letters can be accepted for registration. The ordinary arrangements for express delivery (see pages 93 to 98, P.O. Guide) and the use of the green label system (for articles liable to Customs duty—see pages 154 to 157 P.O. Guide) apply.

2. Air Mail services are available to a number of countries, other than enemy or enemy-occupied territory, on payment of special air postage rates. Full particulars of these services can be obtained on application at a post office. A blue air mail label (obtainable free at any post office) must be affixed in the top left-hand corner of the address side of all air mail correspondence.

3. Stamps to the full value of the postage must be affixed at the top right-hand corner of the address side of the envelope. Special attention is drawn to the fact that the rates of postage for correspondence for countries outside Europe are for a weight of half an ounce.

A letter containing more than the ordinary double sheet of notepaper is likely to be over half an ounce in weight.

Other Air Mail Services.

4. Air mail correspondence for H.M. Ships addressed " c/o G.P.O., London," is accepted for transmission by any available Air Mail service offering acceleration at a flat air postage rate of 1s. 3d. per half-ounce (postcards 7d.). Such correspondence should bear a blue air mail label.

Parcel Air Mails.

5. The General Regulations of the Imperial and Foreign Parcel Post apply, e.g., as regards maximum weight and dimensions, Customs Declarations and Despatch Notes, Supplemental services, Compensation, &c.—see pages 163 to 169 and 283 to 409 P.O. Guide. Air parcels cannot, however, be insured except in the case of those for Holland and Switzerland.

6. Accepting Offices.—Air parcels may be posted at any Post Office which accepts parcels for places abroad. Air parcels exceeding 15 lb. in weight are accepted at the same Offices and under the same conditions as similar parcels for transmission by ordinary post.

7. A special blue Air Mail label must be affixed close to the address of the parcel (close to each address if the parcel is addressed in more than one place) and to the relative Despatch Note and, in the case of Cash on Delivery parcels to the Trade Charge Card. The words " Air Mail " should also be written conspicuously on the cover of the parcel. The sender must also prepay, in the usual way, the appropriate inclusive rate of postage—see Air Mail Leaflet.

8. In addition to rapid transit by air service, an air parcel is usually given speedy Customs clearance abroad. It is important, in order that these advantages may not be thrown away, that the relative Despatch Note and Customs Declarations should be very carefully completed in accordance with the general regulations.

9. Particulars of the air parcel services available are given in the Air Mail leaflet. The latest times of posting can be ascertained by enquiry at the local Head Post Office.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS.

1. The larger Provincial Post Offices are, as a rule, open for every kind of business from 8 a.m. to 7.30 p.m. or 8 p.m. (larger Eire Post Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.), except on Public Holidays; many of the smaller offices are not open before 9 a.m., and are closed for a period in the middle of the day. Further restrictions are in force at certain Sub-Offices where Telegraph business is not transacted. The hours during which an office is open and the class of counter business transacted can be ascertained by reference to the local window notice at the respective offices.

2. In all offices, whether Head or Country Sub-Offices, which are open to the Public for a longer period, viz., from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., the sale of postage stamps, registration of letters, &c., and acceptance of parcels, is continued during all the hours in which they are so open; unless the offices are open for telegraph business only, in which case the sale of postage stamps only is continued. Town Sub-Offices are open to the Public from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Most Town and Country ub-Offices are closed early one day in the week, generally on the local half-holiday. Telegrams are then delivered from a neighbouring office at the same porterage (if any, as if delivered from the usual Delivery Office).

On Sundays, most Head Offices and Country Sub-Offices are open from 9.0 a.m. to 10.0 a.m. for telegraph business, for the sale of postage stamps and the registration of letters.

3. In all Money Order Offices, and in most of the smaller Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, postal orders are sold and paid during all the hours in which such offices are open, but no postal order can be sold or paid before 7 a.m. or after 10 p.m.

N.B.—The above Table does not apply to parcels, which occupy some considerable time longer, according to distance and requirements of Customs and other regulations.

4. No letter or other packet once posted can be withheld from despatch or delivery at the request of the Sender.

5. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorised to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

6. Postmasters are not bound to weigh for the public any letters or other packets brought for the post, but they may do so if their duty is not thereby impeded. This rule does not apply to parcels, which are tested both as to weight and size before being accepted.

7. Postmasters have no discretionary power to supply information respecting letters or any kind of postal packet to persons other than those to whom they are addressed. They are not allowed to make public any official information of a private character.

8. If any packet be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the packet, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words "posted at ———, under cover, to the Postmaster of ———."

9. No letter, parcel or other postal packet can, when once it has been posted in a Post Office receptacle or accepted for transmission at a Post Office, be taken out of the post, even if application be made for it by a person who can prove that he is the sender. Nor can it be detained or delayed even if a request to that effect appear upon the cover. It must be forwarded to its address, and cannot be diverted to any other address at the request of the sender.

10. To facilitate the delivery of Letters a Letter Box should be affixed to every house door.

11. The sender is legally liable for any charges properly made upon a packet which has been posted either unpaid or underpaid, and if the addressee cannot be found, or if he refuses to pay the charges or accept the packet, the charges can be recovered from the sender by legal process.

Subject to the limitations specified in column 6 of the Table on pages 202 to 281 of the Post Office Guide, Registration is applicable to all correspondence except parcels and Magazine Post packets for Canada and Newfoundland. Parcels for places abroad cannot be registered, although in many cases they may be insured (see pages 203 to 281, Post Office Guide).

The fee chargeable for Registration to a place abroad is 3d. In the Table above referred to, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival, it being left to the Postal Authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the Registration or not as they may think proper.

INSURANCE.

Letters.

A letter for a place against which a limit of insured value is entered in column 4 of the Table on pages 203 to 281 of the Post Office Guide, can be insured subject to the limitations shown in column 6 of the Table.

The letters to which the insurance system is applicable are those which contain bank notes, currency notes, bonds, coupons, securities, and other documents of the kind. An object of value which cannot be sent in an insured letter may generally be sent either in an insured box or in an insured parcel. (For further particulars see Post Office Guide, page 191).

Letters intended for insurance must be presented at the counter of a Post Office. They cannot be posted at Railway Stations and must not be dropped into a Letter Box or handed to a postman or mail cart driver.

It is, however, permissible to insert in the packet an open invoice reduced to its essential elements as well as a copy of the addressee's name and address and the name and address of the sender.

A Box containing prohibited articles is stopped and returned to the sender.

For further particulars, and as regards parcels, see Post Office Guide, pages 194 to 195.

GENERAL CONDITIONS.

Imperial and Foreign.

Letters.

A letter posted unpaid or insufficiently prepaid is forwarded and charged on delivery with double the deficiency, with a minimum charge equivalent to 5 centimes (gold), unless it is addressed to a country to which prepayment is compulsory, in which case it is not forwarded, but is returned to the sender if practicable.

An unpaid or insufficiently prepaid unregistered letter from a place abroad is charged double the deficient postage; the minimum surcharge is ½d.

No letter for a British Dominion, Colony, or Possession may exceed 2 feet in length or 1½ feet in width or depth. For Foreign Countries the limit of size is 3 feet in length, breadth and depth combined, but the greatest dimension must not exceed 2 feet. In all cases for letters in the form of a roll, the length and twice the diameter combined must not exceed 3 feet 3 inches, and the greatest dimension must not exceed 2 feet 8 inches. The limit of weight is 4 lb.

To a few countries exceptional conditions apply. (For particulars see P.O. Guide, pages 203 to 281.)

PROHIBITED ARTICLES.

"Panel" Envelopes.

An envelope which is entirely transparent. A packet enclosed in an envelope with a transparent panel which does not conform to the following conditions :—

(a) The panel must extend parallel to the length of the envelope;

(b) A sufficient space, 1½ inches, must be left above the panel for the postage stamp and the date-stamp impression;

(c) No writing or printing other than the address may be displayed through the panel, and the address must appear through the panel in such a manner as to be read with reasonable facility;

(d) The enclosures must be so folded that they cannot move about in the envelopes, and thus cause the address to be hidden.

A packet enclosed in an envelope with an open (cut-out) panel which :—

(a) exceeds 3½ inches in length by 1¼ inches in width; (b) does not comply with the requirements shown in (a), (b), (c) and (d) in paragraph above.

Valuable Articles.

The transmission of coin, bank-notes, currency notes, negotiable instruments payable to bearer, platinum, gold or silver, manufactured or not, precious stones, jewels and other precious articles in unregistered packets is prohibited.

Advice of Delivery of Registered or Insured Correspondence.

The sender of registered or insured correspondence addressed to any place abroad may obtain an advice of its delivery on application at the office of posting, either at the time of posting or subsequently. The fee is 3d., which must be paid on application by stamps affixed by the sender to a form provided for the purpose. Inquiry as to the alleged loss or non-delivery of a registered or insured packet or insured parcel should also be accompanied by a fee of 3d., and should, if possible, be made upon the form used in applying for an advice of delivery.

Post Cards.

The material for private cards to be used as post cards must be cardboard of a make similar to, but not thinner than that used for cards issued and sold by the Postmaster-General for use as post cards. They may not exceed 5⅞ inches in length by 4⅛ inches in width, or be less than 4 inches in length by 2¾ inches in width.

Post cards must bear on the face the heading "Carte postale" in French, or the equivalent of this heading in another language. This heading is, however, not obligatory for single post cards of private manufacture.

Reply-paid post cards must bear on the face in French, as heading on the first half, the words "Carte postale avec réponse payée"; on the second half "Carte postale-réponse."

Each of the two halves must, moreover, comply with the other conditions laid down for single post cards; one half is doubled over the other and they may not be closed in any way.

Official Inland single post cards (but not reply-paid cards) may be used for a destination abroad if they bear a postage stamp for additional postage required.

A post card must be sent unenclosed, that is to say, without wrapper or envelope.

Samples.

The use of the Sample Post to and from Foreign Countries and the Colonies is intended to be restricted to (a) bona fide trade samples of merchandise without saleable value, and (b) printers' blocks, keys sent singly, fresh cut flowers, articles of natural history (dried or preserved animals or plants, geological specimens, &c.), tubes of serum and vaccine, and pathological objects rendered innocuous by their mode of preparation and packing. These articles, except tubes of serum and vaccine sent in the general interest, by laboratories or institutions officially recognised may not be sent for a commercial purpose. Packets containing goods for sale, or consigned in execution of an order (however small the quantity), cannot be forwarded by Sample Post.

It is recommended that every sample should be indelibly marked "Sample—not for sale," or otherwise defaced in such a way as to render the article unsaleable in the ordinary way of trading.

A sample packet addressed to a British Dominion, Colony or Possession, Egypt, or non-Union country must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in breadth or depth. For packets addressed to a Foreign country in the Postal Union (except Egypt) the maximum dimensions are the same as for letters. For packets in the form of a roll, the maximum dimensions are in all cases the same as for letters. The limit of weight for each destination is:—British Empire, 5 lbs.; other countries, 1 lb.

Under the regulations of the Postal Union Sample Packets must be fully prepaid. Insufficiently prepaid Sample Packets from places abroad will be chargeable on delivery with double the deficiency postage (minimum charge 1d.). Further particulars are given on pages 140 to 143 of the Post Office Guide.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Letters intended to be sent by Private Ship must be addressed "By Private Ship;" and if by a particular vessel, the name of the ship must be added.

The Postage and conditions of transmission of letters, &c., by a Private Ship are the same as by Mail Packet.

Foreign Parcel Post and Cash on Delivery System.

For particulars of these services see Post Office Guide, which may be consulted at any Post Office.

Re-direction.

The principle of free re-direction, which is adopted throughout the Postal Union for letters, post cards, commercial papers, printed papers, and sample packets, does not exempt from additional postage letters, &c., which though fully prepaid for the first transmission, are re-directed to a country to which the postage is higher than that originally prepaid. Thus a letter or packet prepaid at the inland rate, sent from one place to another in the United Kingdom, and afterwards re-directed to a place abroad, should have additional stamps affixed to it representing the difference between the inland and the foreign rate of postage, otherwise the difference will be charged on delivery. The same treatment would be adopted with a letter or packet fully prepaid for the inland service of a foreign Country or Colony and re-directed to this country. Letters originally posted unpaid, and letters or packets posted insufficiently paid, and subsequently re-directed, though not chargeable for re-direction, are subject to surcharge on delivery. In the case of air mail packets for which retransmission by air is desired, the appropriate air postage for the second transmission must be prepaid.

A packet which appears to have been opened or tampered with will be chargeable as freshly posted and unpaid.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter or packet at the second address.

Letters for officers and other ranks of H.M. Forces on actual service are exempt from any charge for re-direction.

A packet returned to the sender that he may rectify or complete the address is not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but is liable to fresh postage.

A registered letter or packet, on being re-directed, may not be dropped into a Letter Box, but must be taken to a Post Office to be dealt with as registered. No additional registration fee will be charged.

Registered correspondence is subject to the same rules as ordinary correspondence as regards additional postage charges for re-direction.

Letters, &c., re-directed after delivery at the first address must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery.

A Postal packet intended for Express delivery in any of these countries must be marked "Express," and be prepaid 6d. in addition to the postage. When the addressee resides in the immediate neighbourhood of a Post Office no charge will be made on delivery, but when the place of address is beyond the limits of the Ordinary Postal delivery an additional charge will be levied in the country of destination at its Inland Express rate, allowance being made for the fee prepaid by the sender. In the case of Insured Letters and Boxes, the office of destination is permitted, when its internal regulations so require, to deliver by express messenger an advice of the arrival of the packet instead of the packet itself.

Postal packets from these countries, marked for Express Delivery, and prepaid an Express Fee in addition to the postage will be delivered by Express Messenger subject to the same conditions as regards hours of delivery as Inland Express Postal Packets (see Post Office Guide, pages 102 and 103). Express delivery is undertaken from the usual Delivery Office without further charge, but if at the request of the sender express delivery is made in London from the Head Post Office, E.C.1, or from a Head District Post Office, or in the Provinces from the Head Office, at an address outside the ordinary delivery of those offices, an additional express fee of 6d. will be collected from the addressee.

Although there are no arrangements for delivery by special messenger in the undermentioned countries, general correspondence (for parcels see pages 186-187 P.O. Guide) will be accepted in these countries for Express Delivery in this country.

No part of the Express fee can be prepaid in these countries; and the full fee will in each case be collected from the addressee :—

The value of a Postal Order may be increased by affixing current British postage stamps not exceeding two in number as follows: (1) Up to the value of 5d. to orders of denominations up to and including 4s. 6d. (2) Up to the value of 11d. to orders of denominations above 4s. 6d. No payment can, however, be made for stamps not affixed in the spaces provided or for odd halfpence. Stamps cut out of envelopes, postcards and so on, or perforated with initials or marks cannot be used on postal orders.

The person who sends one of these Orders must fill in the name of the person to whom it is sent, and, if he so wishes, he can also fill in the name of any particular Post Office, and the Order will be cashed at that Office and no other. The insertion of the name of the paying office affords a safeguard against payment being made to a wrong person. No Postal Order will be paid unless the name of the Payee be inserted in the body of the Order and it properly receipted.

These Orders should be cashed within six months of the last day of the month in which they are issued. If an Order is presented for payment more than six months after the month of issue it cannot be cashed until reference has been made to the Money Order Department, London, N.7.

Payment of a Postal Order cannot be deferred.

The sender of a Postal Order can obtain repayment of the amount (but not the poundage) on presenting the Order and the Counterfoil at the issuing Office. If the Order has been crossed for payment through a bank the sender must first cancel the crossing by writing across the face of the Order the words "Please pay cash," and add his initials.

Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should detach and keep the counterfoil. Its production will be necessary if the Order should be lost.

Although the Postmaster-General does not undertake to institute enquiries regarding a Postal Order which has been lost or destroyed unless the counterfoil is produced, in ordinary course he will not refuse to investigate the matter if the counterfoil is not available, provided that the serial number of the Order is given.

Applications concerning Postal Orders which have been lost or destroyed should be addressed to the Controller, Money Order Department (P.O.B.), London, N.7. In order to facilitate the necessary enquiries, such applications should be made without delay, the counterfoil should be produced, or, alternatively, the serial number of the Order should be given. In addition, the following information should be furnished:—

(1) The precise circumstances in which the enquiry is made.

(2) Whether the Order was filled in or crossed and if so, how.

(3) If the Order was sent by post:—

(a) The nature of the packet and the amount of postage paid.

(b) Whether the whole packet or only the Postal Order is missing. If the latter, the cover should be enclosed.

(c) The name and address of sender.

(d) The name and address of addressee.

(e) The date, hour and exact place of posting.

In the case of an application respecting an Order belonging to any denomination up to and including 2s. 6d., no investigation can be undertaken unless the applicant produces either the counterfoil or gives the serial number.

In the case of an application respecting an Order belonging to any denomination higher than 2s. 6d., when the counterfoil cannot be produced, or the serial number given, no investigation can be instituted unless:—

(1) The payee's name was inserted on the Order.

(2) The applicant gives the name of the Post Office at which the Order was purchased and also the approximate date of purchase; and

(3) A search fee of 2s. is paid, which will be returned if the Order proves to have been irregularly paid.

After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster General will not be liable to any further claim.

Postal Notes or Postal Orders of Dominion or Colonial issue (other than British Postal Orders of the usual pattern and Eire Postal Orders) are not payable in the United Kingdom. Eire Postal Orders are payable in the United Kingdom at the Post Offices at which British Postal Orders are payable.

Eire postage stamps will be paid up to the value of 5d. when affixed to an Eire Order subject to the conditions laid down for the Inland Service in the paragraphs under the heading " Postage Stamps affixed to Postal Orders " except that three stamps may be affixed in the spaces provided.

The number printed on Eire postage stamps represents the value in pence.

Postal Notes or Postal Orders of Dominion or Colonial issue (other than British Postal Orders of the usual pattern, and Irish Free State Postal Orders) are not payable in the United Kingdom.

NOTE.—British Postal Orders are not issued or paid in Australia, Canada, Papua, New Guinea Mandated Territory and a few small islands.

Remittances to the Colonies for sums exceeding 21s. and to other places abroad may be made by Money Order.

Postal Drafts.

Remittances are made by certain Government Departments, etc., by means of Postal Drafts, which are paid at all Post Offices transacting Postal Order business.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK.

Deposits.

A Savings Bank Account may be opened at any Money Order or Savings Bank Post Office. The total amount which may be deposited by an individual in a year ending 31st December, is £500. In addition a depositor may, in any year ending the 31st of December, replace the amount of one withdrawal previously made in that year. Only the amount which may be deposited in a year is limited: there is no limit to the amount which may stand to the credit of a depositor.

The deposits of Societies, etc., with certain exceptions, are not subject to the limitation on the amount of annual deposits, nor to the rule as to fractions of a shilling.

In addition to the ordinary withdrawal arrangements the following special facilities are provided :—

Cruising Credits.—Arrangements have been made with British Shipping Lines whereby a Depositor going on a cruise may have placed to his credit on board any sum from his Savings Bank Account, to be drawn on as and when required. Application should be made at least ten days before the cruise on a form to be obtained at a Post Office.

Periodic Payments.—A Depositor may give standing instructions by application to the Controller, for regular payments for House Purchase, Rent, Insurance, Subscriptions, etc., to be made on his behalf provided the payments are not more frequent than once a month and that a reasonable balance is maintained in the account.

Telephone Accounts.—A telephone subscriber who is also a Savings Bank depositor may forward his telephone account to the Savings Bank Department with a signed request for payment to be made from his Savings Bank account, particulars of which should be stated. If the payment of the account would reduce the balance in the Savings Bank Account below £3, the bank book should be forwarded with the request; otherwise the withdrawal entry will be made in the book when it is next received in the Savings Bank Department.

Full directions as to the opening of accounts, the making of deposits, &c., can be obtained at any Post Office where Savings Bank business is transacted.

Home Safes, &c.

The Home Safe is a small money box in book form in which money may be placed for subsequent deposit in a Savings Bank account, or for purchase of National Savings Certificates. A safe can be obtained at any Savings Bank Post Office on payment of 1s., which is returned when the safe is returned in good condition.

Forms to which twelve penny stamps may be affixed are supplied at Post Offices for the saving of pence by children and others unable to save more than a penny or two at a time. Not more than 10s. a month may be deposited in one account by this means, except when special arrangements have been made with schools.

Special facilities are provided for assisting managers of Penny Banks, and for the saving of pence by children attending elementary schools. Information on the subject will be furnished on application to the Controller, Post Office Savings Bank Dept., London.

Savings Associations.

Special facilities for the accumulation of small sums for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank or for investment in National Savings Certificates are also provided by Savings Associations established under the auspices of the National Savings Committee, Sanctuary Buildings, Westminster, S.W.1, and the Scottish Savings Committee, 35 Manor Place, Edinburgh 3, who will give information and advice on this subject.

In particular, a Stamp Savings Book is issued by the National Savings Committee for the use by Savings Associations. This Book, which is otherwise similar to that issued at Post Offices, is used only by Association members, but the member will have the option of using the stamps in the Book at a Post Office or a Trustee Savings Bank either (1) for the purchase of National Savings Certificates, or (2) deposit in a Savings Account, or (3) encashment.

Facilities for Dealing in Government Stock.

The Post Office undertakes the purchase of Government Securities for any person, whether a depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank or not, and will also effect the sale of such Securities at the holder's request.

A leaflet containing information as to dealings in Government Securities may be obtained at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business. Forms of application to purchase or to sell and green envelopes for their transmission are also available at all such Offices.

The undernoted securities may be purchased. —2½% Consols and 2½% Annuities (5th Jan., 5th Apr., 5th July, 5th Oct.); 2½% Conversion Stock, 1944-1949 (1st Apr., 1st Oct.); 2¾% Annuities (5th Jan., 5th Apr., 5th July, 5th Oct.); 2¾% Guaranteed Stock (1st Jan., 1st July); 3% Local Loans (5th Jan., 5th Apr., 5th July, 5th Oct.); 3% Guaranteed Stock (1st Jan., 1st July); 3% Conversion Stock, 1948-1953 (1st Mar., 1st Sept.); 3% Funding Stock, 1959-1969 (15th Apr., 15th Oct.); 3½% War Stock (1st June, 1st Dec.); 3½% Conversion Stock (1st Apr., 1st Oct.); 4% Funding Stock, 1960-1990 (1st May, 1st Nov.); 4% Consols (1st Feb., 1st Aug.); 4% Victory Bonds (redeemable by annual drawings) (1st Mar., 1st Sept.); 4½% Conversion Stock, 1940-1944 (1st Jan., 1st July); 5% Conversion Stock, 1944-1964 (1st May, 1st Nov.).

The dates shewn in parenthesis indicate when dividends are payable.

This list is subject to variation from time to time as Securities are repaid or new Securities issued.

Forms of Application.

Forms for use in connection with any class of transaction in Government Stock, and a Circular containing further information on the subject may be obtained at any Post Office transacting Savings Bank business.

Further Information.

Any further information required may be obtained on application to The Controller, Post Office Savings Bank, London, W.14.

Government Annuities.

Immediate Annuities from £1 up to a total of £300 may be purchased through the Post Office Savings Bank on a single life or on the joint lives of two persons with continuance in full to the survivor. A purchaser need not have a Savings Bank account. Proposal forms are obtainable at any Savings Bank Post Office or from the Controller.

National Savings Certificates.

National Savings Certificates (formerly known as War Savings Certificates) offer a means of investing small sums in a Government security bearing a high rate of interest free of Income Tax.

The present issue, which is known as the seventh issue, was commenced on the 22nd November, 1939. The purchase price is 15s.

All enquiries respecting National Savings Certificates should be addressed to The Controller, Money Order Department, Manor Gardens, Holloway, London, N.7.

TELEGRAMS.

Inland.

Charges.—The charge for the first 9 words is 9d. (1s. 6d. for 12 words in telegrams addressed to Eire), every additional word, 1d.

Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra. In Scotland the extra charge is payable on Sundays only.

Telegrams should be written on the proper form. Forms with embossed stamps may be purchased at most Post Offices.

Groups of figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word.

Prepaid Replies.

The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid. The charge for the reply is at the ordinary telegraph rate and the minimum charge is that for 9 words. A reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to use it for any inland message at any time within twelve months. If the form be not used, its value will be refunded from Headquarters to the sender of the original telegram if he applies and sends the form within twelve months to the local Postmaster.

Reply Telegrams handed in on Sundays, Good Friday, and Christmas Day will be charged 6d. extra unless this amount has been prepaid by the sender of the original telegram. If the telegram is addressed to a place in Scotland, the extra charge need be prepaid on Sundays only.

Addresses.

The address of a telegram should be sufficiently full to enable it to be delivered without difficulty, and without reference to Directories or other sources of information: and the Postmaster-General cannot accept responsibility for the delay or failure of a telegram of which the address does not comply with these requirements. In telegrams for towns the name of the street and the number of the house (in the case of flats, a suitable indication of the flat concerned) should be given, and where there are two or more streets of the same name in a town, the name of the locality should be added.

Credit Accounts.

Credit accounts for the acceptance without prepayment of telegrams at Post Office counters may be opened, without deposit or account-keeping fee, by regular and extensive users of the Post Office telegraph services. Applications for these accounts should be made to the Head Postmaster.

Repetition.

If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy he may have the whole or any part of it repeated without charge so long as original telegram form is on hand at the office of origin.

Delivery.

The amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery up to three miles (one mile in Eire) from the terminal office, or within the town postal delivery of the terminal office, if a Head Office, when that delivery extends beyond three miles. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile or part of a mile, reckoning from the limit of the free delivery. (For further information, see P.O. Guide, page 418.)

Use of Telephonic Addresses for Telegrams.

Telegrams may be addressed to the telephonic addresses of Exchange subscribers for delivery by telephone. The telephonic addresses to be used in such cases must comprise the subscriber's name, Exchange, telephone number and town thus:—

"Jones, Midland 245, Birmingham,"

or, where the name of the Exchange is the same as the name of the town or of a telegraph office or well known locality which is a sufficient address for telegrams, the address may be abbreviated thus:—

"Jones, Stafford 245."
"Jones, Putney 1245."

Delivery by Telephone.

Any fully addressed telegram for the premises of a telephone subscriber may be delivered by telephone if (1) this method has the effect of getting the telegram to the addressee more quickly, and (2) the addressee has not given explicit directions that telegrams for his address are to be delivered by messenger and not by telephone.

If the sender of a telegram wishes it to be delivered by messenger and not by telephone, he should insert at the beginning of the address the word PRIVATE or HAND DELIVERY, either of which is chargeable as one word. This arrangement does not apply to a telegram with a telephonic address.

Telegrams sent by Telephone.

Telephone Subscribers and renters of private wires to Postal Telegraph Offices (see Post Office Guide, page 534) may telephone messages for onward transmission as telegrams. Similarly the public may dictate Telegrams from any Telephone Call Offices where Trunk Calls are accepted, as well as from Telephone Call Offices which are kept open as Telegraph Offices after the ordinary hours for telegraph business. The method of passing calls for telegrams is detailed in the preface of the Telephone Directory.

Telegrams posted in Letter Boxes, or handed to Postmen.

A prepaid telegram enclosed in an envelope marked "Telegram, Immediate," may be posted in any letter box either in town or country, or may be handed in a Rural District to a Postman on his way to a Telegraph Office. Postage need not be paid on telegrams forwarded in this manner.

Prepaid telegrams so posted are sent to the nearest convenient Telegraph Office and are thence transmitted by wire. Telegrams posted without envelopes are similarly treated. Posted telegrams which are insufficiently prepaid are forwarded to their destination, and the deficiency is charged to the addressee; but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded. The time of arrival at the Telegraph Office is taken as the time of handing in.

Night Telegraph Letter Service.

Night Telegraph Letters may be sent to addresses in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, and to the following towns in Eire: Dublin, work, and Cobh (or Queenstown).

The message must bear a full postal address. Registered abbreviated addresses and telephonic addresses are not admissible.

They may be accepted at any time by telephone or at any telegraph office which is open. If a night telegraph letter is handed in before midnight, delivery will be effected on the following week-day either by the first postal delivery or by special messenger shortly afterwards. They are not delivered on Sunday. If handed in at a telegraph office, the messages should be written on an ordinary telegram form and the words TELEGRAPH LETTER should be inserted immediately before the name of the addressee. No charge is made for the words TELEGRAPH LETTER.

The rate is 1s. 3d. (1s. 6d. for an address in Eire) for 36 words or less, and 1d. for every three words beyond 36. A night telegraph letter may be sent reply-paid, and its recipient may use the reply voucher either for a night telegraph letter or for an ordinary telegram.

A Night Telegraph Letter will be delivered at two or more addresses in the same free delivery area on prepayment of the ordinary Night Telegraph Letter charges for the total number of words in the addresses and text in addition to a charge of 4d. for every copy beyond the first. Each address must be complete in itself. The whole of London will for this purpose be regarded as within the same free delivery area.

Business Reply Telegrams.

This service provides for a firm wishing to obtain a telegraphic reply from a client without putting him to the expense of paying the charges, sending with the communication a special form which will be accepted without payment at any Telegraph Office. Full information regarding this service can be obtained at any Head Branch Post Office or Salaried Post Office.

Greetings Telegrams.

Messages of greeting, of congratulations or good wishes can be delivered on gaily decorated forms, enclosed in golden envelopes, on payment of a flat rate of 3d. in addition to the usual charges. The word "Greeting," which is not charged for, should be written before the name of the addressee. The service is not available to Eire.

Redirection.

Fully addressed telegrams may be redirected to a second address. Redirection often involves a second service approximately equal to the first. When a second service is performed the charge for redirection is 9d. per telegram if the original and new addresses are in the same place, free delivery area or London Postal District, and in all other cases at the ordinary inland rate. There is a further similar charge for a subsequent redirection.

Telegrams may be redirected privately and handed back to the Post Office, or, if desired, the Post Office will record, on a printed form which can be obtained on request, and carry out instructions for redirection. Telegrams are redirected free of charge for three months; and for any period beyond this, up to one year, a charge of £1 1s. is made.

Telegrams may be redirected by post without charge.

Multiple Addresses.

A telegram can be sent to two or more addresses in the same free delivery area at the following rates :—

9d. for the first nine words ;
1d. for each additional word ;
4d. for every copy beyond the first.

All the words in the addresses and text are counted.

Each address should be complete in itself. For the purposes of this service each London Postal District, for example the S.W. District, S.E. District, and so on is regarded as a separate free delivery area.

When a multiple address telegram for London is directed to one or more registered abbreviated addresses, the District initials should, exceptionally, be inserted after each registered address, but they are not charged for.

Registered Abbreviated Addresses.

Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of the following scale of charges :—

For a period not exceeding 3 months, ...	£0	12	6
Exceeding 3 months but not exceeding 6 months, ..	1	5	0
Exceeding 6 months but not exceeding 9 months, ..	1	15	0
Exceeding 9 months but not exceeding 1 year, ...	2	0	0

Telegrams for His Majesty's Ships.

The address of a telegram for one of His Majesty's Ships known to be in Home Waters should contain (1) the name of the addressee, (2) the name of the ship prefixed by the letters "H.M.S.," and (3) the name of the Telegraph Office of destination or, alternatively, the word "London."

The Post Office cannot supply information of the whereabouts of a ship, but this information can be obtained on application to the Admiralty, either by telegram with prepaid reply, or by letter stating the time at which it is proposed to send the telegram.

As regards telegrams to His Majesty's Ships in Foreign Waters, see Post Office Guide, page 432.

Cancelling Telegrams.

The sender may have his telegram cancelled, and if it be cancelled before the commencement of transmission the sum paid will be returned at the time, less a fee of 4d. for cancelling it ; but if transmission has commenced, the sum will not be returned. If transmission has been completed, an official telegram, prepaid by the sender, will be sent to the Postmaster at the terminal Office. If the official telegram should arrive too late, the sender will be informed that the attempt to cancel his telegram has failed, but the sums paid will not be refunded.

A business reply telegram can be cancelled on payment by the sender of a fee of 4d., only if transmission has not commenced. If transmission has been commenced the sender should send a fully paid telegram to the addressee, cancelling the business reply telegram, but another business reply form may not be used for this purpose.

RADIOTELEGRAMS.

For ships at sea.

Radiotelegrams are accepted at any Postal Telegraph Office. For full particulars see Post Office Guide, pages 512 to 520.

IMPERIAL AND FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

Charges.

Particulars of the charges and full list of all countries to which messages may be sent will be found on pages 429 to 511 of the Post Office Guide.

PLAIN LANGUAGE ; CODE LANGUAGE ; CYPHER.

In plain language the length allowed for a single word is 15 letters, additional letters being charged for at the rate of 15 letters to the word.

Code language is composed of (i) artificial words, (ii) real words not used with the meaning normally assigned to them in the language to which they belong, and consequently not forming intelligible phrases in one or more of the languages authorised for plain language. Both kinds of code words may be used in the same telegram. Code words are not subject to any conditions regarding vowels or pronounceability, but they must not contain any accented letter or any figure.

Telegrams containing code language are charged at reduced "CDE" rates, provided that no code word, whether real or artificial, exceeding five letters in length, is used. The sender may if he chooses divide his code words into groups of not more than five letters each in order to make the telegram eligible for the "CDE" rate. If the sender of a telegram eligible for transmission as "CDE" wishes it to be accepted at the reduced rate, he should state this to the counter officer, or mark the form clearly "Code." The counter officer will insert the relative instruction "CDE" in the official part of the telegram (see P.O. Guide, page 436).

Cypher is composed of :—

(i) Figures or groups or series of figures having a secret meaning ;

(ii) words, names, expressions or combinations of letters not fulfilling the conditions applicable to plain language or five-letter code.

Cypher is chargeable at the rate of five characters to a word. It is not permitted to use figure and letter cypher in the same expression.

If words in plain language are used in the text of a telegram containing cypher, the cypher is counted at five characters to the word, and the plain language at fifteen letters to the word.

Multiple Addresses.

The addresses of a telegram to be sent to several persons in the same town or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, should be prefaced by the indicator =TM= followed by the number of addresses, for example, = TM 4. = The telegram, including the addresses, is charged for as a single telegram, but a copy is prepared for each address. The copying fee is 10d. per copy not exceeding 50 chargeable words and 5d. for every additional 50 words or portion thereof.

Prepaid Replies.

A reply may be prepaid to any Imperial and Foreign telegram.

When prepayment of a reply is desired the sender should write the letters = RP = followed by the amount to be prepaid, for example, = RP 10/6, = before the address.

A voucher for the amount prepaid is issued to the addressee by the office of delivery and is valid for a period of three months for payment, or partial payment, of any telegram.

If the reply paid telegram cannot be delivered to the addressee, the value of the voucher is refunded to the sender on application being made within its period of validity.

If the addressee does not use the voucher its value will be refunded to the sender if he makes application and returns the voucher within its period of validity.

Where the charge for the reply sent is less than the amount prepaid the balance, if not less than 1s. 8d., will be returned to the sender if application is made within three months of the date of issue of the voucher.

All applications for refundment should be addressed to the Telecommunications Department, General Post Office, London, E.C.1.

Repetition at the Request of the Sender.

If the sender so desires, an Ordinary, Urgent, or Deferred telegram can be repeated from office to office throughout its transmission.

An additional charge of one half the cost of the telegram reckoned at the Ordinary rate is made for the service.

In the case of extra-European code telegrams prepaid at the Ordinary or Urgent rates, the additional charge is one half the cost of the telegram reckoned at the ordinary CDE rates. In each case the indicator = TC = should precede the address of destination of the telegram.

Repetition at the Request of the Addressee.

The addressee of a telegram from abroad may, with the view to rectifying errors, have it repeated, wholly or partly, from the office of origin.

No charge is made for this service and applications for repetitions may be made in person, by post or by telephone. Except in the latter case production of the delivered copy is required. Application should be made to the office from which the telegram was delivered.

In certain circumstances, charges are returned. For particulars, see Post Office Guide, page 439.

PICTURE AND FACSIMILE TELEGRAPHY SERVICES.

1. General Description.

Pictures, photographs (positive or negative), drawings, plans, printed, typed, or written matter, documents, shorthand, and so on, may be telegraphed in facsimile from London to many places in Europe. They may be posted thence direct from the office of receipt by express or registered post. For a list of the centres served by telegraph and rates of charges see Post Office Guide, pages 429 to 511.

2. General Conditions.

The matter to be transmitted must be on one side of the paper which should have a margin of a quarter of an inch along its shorter edges.

The picture should be rectangular and should not exceed 13 by 18 centimetres or approximately five by seven inches. Larger sizes can be divided to make several pictures within these dimensions. Margins are not charged for.

Positive or negative films can be accepted for transmission, but a print has to be made at a charge of two shillings before transmission can be commenced.

Photographic tones can be satisfactorily reproduced, but black printing, writing, drawing, and so on, on a white ground are best for reproduction.

Coloured paper and coloured printing and faint or indistinct pictures are not suitable for transmission.

3. Addressing.

The address of the person to whom the reproduction is to be delivered, together with any special indications, should be written on a buff telegraph form A.16 obtainable at any telegraph office. The address, inclusive of any special indicators, is transmitted free of charge. The addressee's telephone number should, if possible, be included in the address; in other respects the address should be restricted to the necessary particulars and a registered abbreviated address may be used to any of the towns named in the table of charges.

For further particulars see Post Office Guide, pages 432 to 433.

PRIVATE TELEGRAPHS AND TELEPHONES.

Private telegraph and telephone facilities of various kinds may be rented from the Post Office. These services are afforded by means of one or more direct circuits and provide instant communication between the points connected without the use of the public telephone exchange system. These private services are operated either by teleprinter—an instrument resembling a typewriter and easily operated by a typist after a little practice—or by telephone, or by teleprinter or telephone at will. Other services provide for the transmission of pictures, music, fire alarms, signals showing water level or gas pressure, and so on. Simultaneous transmission to a number of points can be given. A 24-hour service is usually provided; but sometimes a part-time private telephone service can be given outside the morning busy period, 10 a.m. to noon, and outside any other busy period on the route concerned.

The charges vary according to the kind of service and the distance between the places to be connected.

The Regional Director, London Telecommunications Region (telephone number CITy 2000), or the local District or Telephone Manager, whose address and telephone number may be found in the preface to the local telephone directory, will be glad to furnish particulars and to send a representative to advise on the service most suited to particular needs.

TIME SERVICE.

Subscribers or call office users in any part of the country may obtain the correct time by making a call to the speaking clock which is in operation in London and certain other centres. Oral announcements of the time of day are given from the clock at intervals of 10 seconds. The only charge payable is the ordinary charge for a call to central London or to the appropriate centre. Full particulars are to be found in the telephone directories for London and the other centres concerned.

Subscribers on exchanges from which the charge to the speaking clock exceeds one penny may, if they so desire, obtain the time by the local exchange clock at a charge of one penny, by asking the operator for The time.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY.

Under the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1904-1926, no person may establish a wireless telegraph station or instal or work any apparatus for wireless telegraphy in any place in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man, or on board any British Ship except under a Licence granted by the Postmaster General.

Wireless telegraphy is defined to mean any system of communication by telegraph without the aid of any wire connecting the points from and at which the messages or other communications are sent and received. It includes wireless telephony.

Any person contravening the Act renders himself liable to serious penalties.

Wireless Licences.

Broadcast receiving licences may be obtained on demand at any Money Order Office and at certain other offices, at a charge of 10s. per annum.

An initial licence covers a period of twelve months from the first day of the month of issue. A renewal licence covers a full period of twelve months from the date on which the previous licence expires.

Free receiving licences may also be obtained at such offices by blind persons who produce the required certificates of registration.

Transmitting Licences are issued only by the Engineer-in-Chief, Radio Branch, Armour House, St. Martin's-le-Grand, London, E.C.2.

TELEPHONES.

The Post Office telephone system is available for both short distance (local) and long distance (trunk) communication throughout the United Kingdom and the Isle of Man. A limited service to Guernsey and Jersey is also available. Calls may also be made to Eire to practically all parts of Europe and to most of the important countries overseas, as well as to certain ships at sea (see International Telephone Services, pages 700 to 730 of the Post Office Guide).

Tariff Rates for Exchange Lines.

A connection charge (which is not returnable) of 15s. 0d. or less is payable in respect of each exclusive exchange line, group service line, rural party line.

Cable Charges.

The following additional charge covering a period of not more than 3 minutes is payable on calls to Eire from the mainland of Great Britain and the Isle of Man and vice versa.

5 a.m. to 7 p.m., - - 1s. 2d.
7 p.m. to 5 a.m., - - 0s. 7d.

For calls longer than three minutes' duration the charge is increased proportionately to the basic charge.

Duration of Call.

Trunk calls for distances up to 35 miles are charged for in indivisible periods of three minutes.

Trunk calls for distances over 35 miles are charged for minute by minute after the first (minimum) three minutes.

The minimum charge covers a period of conversation of three minutes, commencing from the time when the number wanted has been connected.

In order to indicate to the caller the passage of time during a trunk or toll call, announcements of elapsed time are normally given by an automatic signal consisting of a series of pips of sound, the first pip occurring approximately 12 seconds before the expiry of each three-minute period; on certain types of calls the signal may not be available and the operator is then instructed to enter the circuit towards the end of each three-minute period and announce three minutes, six minutes, and so on. Under either system the caller may end or continue his call as he wishes; the Post Office reserve the right, however, to restrict the duration of any all if the traffic conditions render such a course desirable.

Personal Call Service.

Calls for a specified person can be booked on payment of a small extra charge.

This additional charge, known as the personal charge, which is the same whatever the distance or duration of the call, is :

5 a.m. to 7 p.m., - - 1s. 2d.
7 p.m. to 5 a.m., - - 0s. 7d.

The caller may specify the name of the person to whom he wishes to speak, or a particular department of a business concern, an official or a particular rank or title, a reference from business correspondence, such as AB/C/1234, and so on.

He may also name a substitute for the person wanted, and he may give a second telephone number where his correspondent may be found.

A personal call will be connected only when the person required, or a substitute acceptable to the caller, is ready to speak at the distant end.

If the required person cannot be obtained at first, the caller will be informed of the position and may either tell his exchange to leave his call for completion later, after further efforts have been made to find the person wanted, or cancel the call.

If a personal call is cancelled before the person required is found, or if it cannot be completed because the person required is away, or cannot be traced, only the personal charge will be payable.

A personal call received before 10 p.m. is automatically cancelled at midnight and a personal call received between 10 p.m. and midnight is cancelled at 8 a.m. the following day, unless advice is received that the required person will be available within 24 hours from the time of booking.

If the caller, after being advised that the wanted person is not available, asks to speak to anyone at the distant end, both the personal charge and the appropriate call charge will be payable.

Accounts.

Where a business subscriber's charges for 5d. calls and calls of higher value and for telegrams, postal services, and so on, usually exceed 30s. a quarter, accounts for these charges are rendered monthly.

Apart from this, all subscribers may exercise the option of having their accounts rendered either quarterly or monthly.

If it is found necessary to withdraw a subscriber's service in consequence of delay in the payment of an account, a charge of 5s. (plus 15 per cent. War Surcharge) is made for restoration of service.

Telephone Directories.

Each subscriber is supplied with a free copy of the Alphabetical Telephone Directory for the District in which his premises are situated. Information as to the charge for additional copies, or for copies of Directories for other Districts appears in the preface of Telephone Directories.

Private Communication Services.

The terms on which private telephone, teleprinter or phototelegraphic facsimile services (covering 24 hour use) can be provided may be ascertained on application in the Provinces to the Telephone Manager, or in London to the Regional Director, London Telecommunications Region (Telephone number CITy 2000).

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a List of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, with the alterations by subsequent Acts. The duties imposed by prior Acts on Patent Medicines, Playing Cards, and certain Licenses are also given. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule, and except where otherwise referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Separate tables of Estate, Legacy and Succession Duties follow.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of material.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped. —§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

[But by 62 and 63 Vict. c. 9, § 12, (1) where an instrument other than a bill of exchange or promissory note is charged with an ad valorem duty in respect of any money in any foreign or colonial currency a rate of exchange for which is specified in a schedule to the Act, it shall be calculated according to the rate of exchange therein specified, and by (2) the Commissioners may substitute any rate of exchange for that mentioned in the schedule and may also extend the schedule by advertisement in the London Gazette.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 2).

[Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).]

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instrument relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act, passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 35s. is chargeable with duty of 10s. —§ 120. Any instrument referring to any Act repealed by Stamp Act, 1891, shall, unless context otherwise require, be construed to refer to that Act or the corresponding enactment therein.—61 and 62 Vict. c. 46, § 7 (2).

On termination of license, licensee or his representatives may recover value of stamps less discount. Penalty for hawking stamps (whether person licensed or not), £20. Person in employment of Post-Office may sell postage stamps at any place and in any manner. Discount to be allowed as Treasury direct.—(54 and 55 Viet. c. 38, §§ 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8.)

ALLOWANCE FOR SPOILED STAMPS.

STAMP DUTIES MANAGEMENT ACT, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 38).

Procedure for obtaining Allowance.—§ 9. Subject to such regulations as the Commissioners may think proper to make, and to the production of such evidence by statutory declaration or otherwise as the Commissioners may require, allowance is to be made by the Commissioners for stamps spoiled in the cases hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say)—

(1.) The stamp on any material inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, obliterated, or by any means rendered unfit for the purpose intended, before the material bears the signature of any person or any instrument written thereon is executed by any party:

(2.) Any adhesive stamp which has been inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled or rendered unfit for use, and has not in the opinion of the Commissioners been affixed to any material:

(3.) Any adhesive stamp representing a fee capable of being collected by means of such stamp which has been affixed to material, provided that a certificate from the proper officer is produced to the effect that the stamp should be allowed.

(4.) The stamp on any bill of exchange signed by or on behalf of the drawer which has not been accepted or made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands for any purpose other than by way of tender for acceptance.

(5.) The stamp on any promissory note signed by or on behalf of the maker which has not been made use of in any manner whatever or delivered out of his hands.

(6.) The stamp on any bil of exchange or promissory note which from any omission or error has been spoiled or rendered useless, although the same, being a bill of exchange, may have been accepted or indorsed, or, being a promissory note, may have been delivered to the payee, provided that another completed and duly stamped bill of exchange or promissory note is produced identical in every particular, except in the correction of the error or omission with the spoiled bill or note:

(7.) The stamp used for any of the following instruments; that is to say—

(a.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found to be absolutely void from the beginning:

(b.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, but afterwards found unfit, by reason of any error or mistake therein, for the purpose originally intended.

(c). An instrument executed by any party thereto which has not been made use of for any purpose whatever, and which, by reason of the inability or refusal of some necessary party to sign the same or to complete the transaction according to the instrument, is incomplete and insufficient for the purpose for which it was intended:

(d.) An instrument executed by any party thereto, which by reason of the refusal of any person to act under the same, or for want of enrolment or registration within the time required by law, fails of the intended purpose or becomes void:

(e.) An instrument executed by any party thereto which is inadvertently and undesignedly spoiled, and in lieu whereof another instrument made between the same parties and for the same purpose is executed and duly stamped, or which becomes useless in consequence of the transaction intended to be thereby effected being effected by some other instrument duly stamped:

Provided as follows:—

(a.) That the application for relief is made within two years after the stamp has been spoiled or become useless, or in the case of an executed instrument after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, or within such further time as the Commissioners may prescribe in the case of any instrument sent abroad for execution, or when from unavoidable circumstances any instrument for which another has been substituted cannot be produced within the said period;

(b.) That in the case of an executed instrument no legal proceeding has been commenced in which the instrument could or would have been given or offered in evidence, and that the instrument is given up to be cancelled;

(c.) That in the case of stamps used for medicines or playing cards, the medicines or cards bearing the stamps are produced to an officer and the stamps are removed therefrom in his presence.

Allowance for Misused Stamps.—§ 10. When any person has inadvertently used for an instrument liable to duty a stamp of greater value than was necessary, or has inadvertently used a stamp for an instrument not liable to any duty, the Commissioners may, on application made within two years after the date of the instrument, or, if it is not dated, within two years after the execution thereof by the person by whom it was first or alone executed, and upon the instrument, if liable to duty, being stamped with the proper duty, cancel and allow as spoiled the stamp so misused.

Allowance, how to be made.—§ 11. In any case in which allowance is made for spoiled or misused stamps the Commissioner may give in lieu thereof other stamps of the same denomination and value, or if required, and they think proper, stamps of any other denomination to the same amount in value, or in their discretion, the same value in money, deducting therefrom the discount allowed on the purchase of stamps of the like description.

Stamps not wanted may be repurchased by the Commissioners.—§ 12. When any person is possessed of a stamp which has not been spoiled or rendered unfit or useless for the purpose intended, but for which he has no immediate use, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, repay to him the value of the stamp in money, deducting the proper discount upon his delivering up the stamp to be cancelled, and proving to their satisfaction that it was purchased by him at the chief office or at one of the head offices, or from some person duly appointed to sell and distribute stamps, or duly licensed to deal in stamps, within the period of two years next preceding the application, and with a bona fide intention to use it. (See Note a.)

Note a.—The Inland Revenue Office, No. 10 Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every day except Saturday, from 10 A.M. to 3 P.M. (Saturday, 10 to 12). The distributors and sub-distributors of stamps, and certified postmasters, also receive spoiled stamps for allowance.

A supply of forms of affidavit is kept at the Inland Revenue Office, and by the distributors of stamps, and by most of the sub-distributors and certain postmasters; and claimants may attend at the Inland Revenue Office and have the affidavits taken; or they may take the oath before a justice of the peace, and shortly afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If not brought within ten days or a fortnight afterwards the stamp will not be allowed without a fresh affidavit. If the claim be lodged at Edinburgh, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made for information as to the result of such claim after the next Monday, and within three months from the date of the ticket. If the claim be lodged with a distributor, or sub-distributor, or postmaster, a ticket is issued stating that application is to be made regarding such claim after a specified date, and within three months from the date of the ticket. If application not made within that time, the claim will be forfeited, and no excuse will be accepted.

ESTATE DUTY

(Including the Further or "Settlement" Estate Duty 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I.; 59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, Part IV.; 61 and 62 Vict. c. 10, Part V.; 63 Vict. c. 7, Part III.; 3 Edw. VII., c. 46, Part IV.; 7 Edw. VII., c. 13, Part III.; 10 Edw. VII., c. 8, Part III.; 2 and 3 Geo. V., c. 8; 4 and 5 Geo. V., c. 10; 4 and 5 Geo. V., c. 76 and following Acts.)

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and movable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes on the death of a person dying after 1st August, 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation, including all property:—

(a.) Of which deceased at his death was competent to dispose;

Note.—A person is deemed competent to dispose of property if he has such an estate or interest therein, or such general power as would, if he were sui juris, enable him to dispose of the property (including an institute or heir of entail in possession, whether sui juris or not); and the expression "general power," includes every power or authority enabling the donee or other holder thereof to appoint or dispose of property as he thinks fit, whether exciseable by instrument inter vivos, or by will, or both, including a general power to charge money on property, but exclusive of any power exerciseable in a fiduciary capacity under a disposition not made by himself, or as mortgagee.

(b.) In which deceased or any other person had an interest, ceasing on death of deceased—to extent to which a benefit accrues thereby; except where the interest is as holder of an office or recipient of a charity;

(c.) Property taken as a donatio mortis causa or taken under a disposition purporting to operate as an immediate gift inter vivos, or a surrender assurance divesting or disposition of property made or effected three years before the death of the deceased, or whenever made if immediate possession and enjoyment has not been assumed by donee, and thenceforward retained to exclusion of donor or benefit to him; Exemption gifts which are made in consideration of marriage, or which are proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to have been part of the normal expenditure of the deceased, and to have been reasonable, having regard to the amount of income or to the circumstances, or which in the case of any donee do not exceed in the aggregate £100 in value or amount, or made or effected for public or charitable purposes.

(d.) Which deceased has transferred to himself and any other person jointly, by disposition or otherwise, including a purchase or investment alone, or in concert with another, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passes by survivorship to such other person;

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

(g.) Annuities (other than a single annuity not exceeding £25, or the first granted of two or more such), or other interest purchased or provided by deceased alone or in concert with any other, to extent of beneficial interest accruing by survivorship or otherwise on death of deceased [duty may be paid by four yearly instalments];

(h.) For the purposes of paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section two of the Finance Act, 1894, where an annuity or other interest has been purchased or provided by the deceased, either by himself alone or in concert or by arrangement with any other person, the extent of any beneficial interest therein accruing or arising by survivorship or otherwise on the death of the deceased shall be ascertained, and shall be deemed always to have been ascertainable, without regard to any interest in expectancy the beneficiary may have had therein before the death:

Provided that, in a case where the deceased died before the passing of this Act, this section shall not apply to a beneficial interest accruing or arising under a disposition of property which produced income falling to be dealt with under the disposition during the lifetime of the deceased if no estate duty was paid in respect of the beneficial interest before the eighth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-two (Finance Act, 1934).

(i.) Subsection (1) of section fifteen of the Finance Act, 1894 (which exempts from estate duty certain annuities not exceeding twenty-five pounds) shall have effect, in the case of an annuity purchased or provided by a person dying after the passing of this Act, as if the words "fifty-two pounds" were substituted for the words "twenty-five pounds."

(j.) An annuity of less than one hundred and four pounds which would, but for the fact that it exceeds fifty-two pounds, be exempted from estate duty under the provisions of the said subsection as amended by this section, shall be chargeable with estate duty as if it were an annuity of twice the amount by which it exceeds fifty-two pounds and as if the said provisions were not in force (Finance Act, 1935).

(k.) "Property comprised in any special assignation or disposition taking effect on death."

Property subject to an annuity or other periodical payment limited to cease on death of deceased, which has been surrendered; § 39 Finance Act, 1930.

ENTAILED ESTATE.

Where an entailed estate passes on death of a deceased who dies prior to 12th May, 1914, to an institute or heir of entail, not entitled to disentail without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued or dispensed with, Settlement Estate Duty, as well as Estate Duty, is payable; but neither Estate Duty nor Settlement Estate Duty is again payable until such estate is disentailed, or until an heir of entail to whom it passes on or subsequent to the death of the institute or heir first mentioned, and who is entitled to disentail without obtaining consent or having the consent valued and dispensed with, dies.

Settlement Estate Duty is not payable on entailed estate which passes by a death after 15th August, 1914, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of such estate by death after that date, whether the deceased was competent to disentail or not, unless the person dying was the husband or wife of a person on whose prior death Estate Duty has been paid. In the latter case the provisions of sec. 23 (16) of the Finance Act, 1914, remain applicable.

An institute or heir of entail in possession of an entailed estate, not entitled to disentail such estate without obtaining one or more consents, or having those consents valued and dispensed with, paying Estate Duty, and afterwards disentailing, may deduct from the value in money of the expectancy or interest in such estate of the persons whose consents were granted or dispensed with, a proper rateable part of the duty paid by him.

PROPERTY ABROAD.

Charge confined to moveable property, of which the owner dies domiciled in United Kingdom, or to property in which deceased was interested for life, and which was subject of a British trust.

Property in a British Possession.—If duty in respect thereof also payable there, a sum equal to the amount may be deducted from the Estate Duty, provided that in such possession no duty is chargeable in respect of property situate in the United Kingdom, or allowance is made of any duty payable in the United Kingdom. This provision applies to such British possessions as are from time to time brought within its scope by Order in Council.

Where property situate out of Great Britain is bequeathed to or settled on different persons in succession, and legacy or succession duty has been paid thereon, such duty shall be deemed to be payable in respect of the property on the death of each of those persons in succession, notwithstanding that the whole amount of the duty was paid on one death only as in the case of a legacy to one person.

EXCEPTIONS.

Enlargement of interest of settler.—Property settled by a person on himself for life, and after his death for another with an ultimate reversion to himself, is not deemed to pass by death of such other person after 1st July, 1896, in settler's lifetime.

Reverter to settler.—Estate Duty is not payable when property reverts to a settler in his lifetime on the death, on or after 1st July, 1896, of a person having a limited interest under a disposition; provided that no other interest was created by the disposition, and that the person having the limited interest had not, prior to the disposition, been competent to dispose of the property.

Trust property.—Not liable if held by deceased for another person under a disposition not made by deceased, or made by him more than three years before death, and possession and enjoyment bona fide assumed by beneficiary immediately on creation of trust, and thenceforth retained to entire exclusion of deceased or of benefit to him.

National Debt.—Exemption from Estate Duty in case of trust funds and gifts for reduction of National Debt. § 30 Finance Act, 1928.

Bona fide purchase from person under whose disposition property passes, or determination of an annuity for lives—duty not payable where purchase made or annuity granted for full consideration in money or money's worth to vendor or granter for his own use or benefit. Where purchase made or annuity granted for partial consideration value of consideration to be allowed as a deduction from value of property for purpose of duty.

Estate Duty not payable on the property of common seamen, marines, soldiers, or airmen, who are slain or die in His Majesty's service; nor

On any pension or annuity by Indian Government to widow or child of a deceased officer of such Government.

Section 40 of the Finance Act, 1931, grants exemption from death duties in case of land given to National Trust for Places of Historic Interest or Natural Beauty, incorporated by the National Trust Act, 1907.

Section 40 of the Finance Act, 1930, grants exemption of duty on such pictures, prints, books, manuscripts, works of art or scientific collections as appear to the Treasury to be of national, scientific, historic, or artistic interest, given for national purposes, or to a university, or county council, or municipal corporation. Also on similar articles in private possession while they remain unsold. Duty shall not become chargeable on the sale if sale is to the National Gallery, British Museum, or other similar national institution, any university, any county council, any municipal corporation in the United Kingdom, or the National Art Collection Fund.

Section 43 (1) Finance Act, 1921. Also extended to cases of persons who die from wounds inflicted, accidents occurring or disease contracted, while on active service against an enemy or on service which is of a warlike nature or which in the opinion of the Treasury otherwise involves the same risks as active service. § 38, Finance Act, 1924.

Where husband or wife entitled, solely or jointly, to income of property settled by the other under a disposition taking effect before 2nd August, 1894, and on his or her death survivor becomes entitled to the income of the property settled by such survivor, duty is not payable in respect of that property until death of survivor.

Estate Duty is not payable on the death of a person who dies prior to 16th August, 1914, in respect of moveable property settled by a will or disposition made by a person dying before the 2nd August, 1894, in respect of which property, inventory, or account duty has been paid, or is payable, unless in either case deceased, at the time of his death, or at any time since the will or disposition took effect, had been competent to dispose of the property.

But where the death is after 15th August, 1914, the property so settled is chargeable with Estate Duty despite such prior payment, unless the person dying is the husband or wife of the predecessor on whose death Inventory or Account Duty was paid and had not been competent to dispose of the property. Where holder of War Savings Certificate or National Savings Certificate is at time of death domiciled in Channel Islands or Isle of Man, rights under certificate are deemed to be property situate out of Great Britain. § 41 Finance Act, 1931. (See also Settled Property.)

Where on a death Estate Duty is payable in respect of property passing under a settlement by will or disposition made before 2nd August, 1894, and before that date any additional succession duty under 55 Vict. c. 8, § 21, or Temporary Estate Duty, or Legacy or Succession Duty at 1 per cent. (which would now be covered by payment of Estate Duty) has been paid, such latter duties may form deductions from the payment of Estate Duty. (See also Limitation for Liability.)

AGGREGATION—ESTATE BY ITSELF.

All property passing on a death to form one estate, on which duty to be levied at the proper graduated rate on principal value; but property in which the deceased never had an interest, forms an estate by itself on which duty is payable at the appropriate rate.

Small estates not exceeding £1000 net.—Where net value of property, heritable and moveable, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by the will of the deceased, does not exceed £1000, such property is not to be aggregated with any other property, but is to form an estate by itself.

SETTLED PROPERTY—SETTLEMENT ESTATE DUTY.

Where property liable to duty is settled by the will of a person dying prior to 12th May, 1914, or having been settled by some other disposition, passes under it on death of a person so dying to some person not competent to dispose thereof, a further duty, called Settlement Estate Duty, is payable on the principal value, except where the only life interest in such property after deceased's death is that of the husband or wife of deceased, or where the disposition took effect before 2nd August, 1894. Property in which the wife or husband of deceased takes an estate of Terce or Courtesy, or other like estate is to be treated as property settled by will of deceased.

Provided.—(a.) Estate Duty and Settlement Estate Duty are not payable twice under the same settlement, with reference to death prior to 16th August, 1914, unless deceased at his death was, or at any time during continuance of settlement had been, competent to dispose of the property;

(b.) Where the interest of any person under the settlement fails or determines by reason of his death before it becomes an interest in possession, and subsequent limitations under the settlement continue to subsist, the property is not deemed to pass on his death;

(c.) Ad valorem stamp duty on settlement may be deducted from Settlement Estate Duty;

(d.) Settlement Estate Duty not payable where lands or chattels are so settled by Act of Parliament or royal grant that no one of persons entitled in succession can alienate the same;

(e.) Settlement Estate Duty under a will is payable out of the settled legacy or property to the exoneration of residuary estate, and is leviable on an account to be delivered by the executor within six months of death—(after 1st July, 1896).

(f.) Settled property does not include property held under entail.—See Entailed Estate, supra.

(g.) Contingent settlement.—If contingency do not and cannot arise, duty to be repaid.

Where the death is after 11th May, 1914, Settlement Estate Duty is not chargeable, but Estate Duty is payable on every passing of settled property by death after 15th August, 1914, unless the person dying after that date was the husband or wife of the deceased on whose death the prior payment of Estate Duty (and Settlement Estate Duty) was made, and had not been competent to dispose of the property during the continuance of the settlement.

Where, if the death had been prior to the 16th August, 1914, the payment of Settlement Estate Duty would have franked the passing, then, on the first occasion that Estate Duty is again payable on the settled property allowance for the Settlement Estate Duty formerly paid is made.

PERSONS LIABLE—HOW PAYABLE—LIMITATION OF LIABILITY.

Executor or Intromitter, Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper sheriff court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate [Forms A, B, and D1] and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Executor is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to specify in appropriate accounts annexed to the inventory (Form A 1) all the property in respect of which duty is payable upon the death of deceased whether he is or is not accountable for the duty thereon. He shall not be liable for duty in excess of assets received by him, or which, but for his neglect or default, he might have received.

Other persons liable.—Where executor not liable for duty, every person to whom any property passes for any beneficial interest in possession, and also, to the extent of the property actually received or disposed of by him, every trustee, tutor, curator, judicial factor or other person in whom any interest in the property, or the management thereof, is at any time vested, and every person, in whom the same is vested in possession by alienation or other derivative title, is liable therefor, excepting one who acts merely as agent for another in the management.

A bona fide purchaser for valuable consideration without notice is not liable for duty.

Limitation for liability.—The various limitation in favour of purchasers and mortgagees, etc., under 52 Vict. cap. 7, §§ 12-14, are made applicable to Estate Duty. (See Succession Duty.) After 20 years from the death Commissioners may, on application, remit any duty unpaid or interest thereon in whole or in part.

VALUE—DEDUCTIONS—REPAYMENT.

In estimating the principal value of any property under subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, in the case of any person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, the Commissioners shall fix the price of the property according to the market price at the time of the death of the deceased, and shall not make any reduction in the estimate on account of the estimate being made on the assumption that the whole property is to be placed on the market at one and the same time. In estimating the principal value of any agricultural property which comprises cottages occupied by persons employed solely for agricultural purposes in connection with the property, no account shall be taken of any value attributable to the fact that the cottage is suitable for the residential purposes of any persons other than agricultural labourers or workmen on the estate. Provided that where it is proved to the Commissioners that the value of the property has been depreciated by reason of the death of the deceased, the Commissioners in fixing the price shall take such depreciation into account.

An appeal shall not lie under section 10 of the Finance Act, 1894, whether as originally enacted or as applied by any other enactment, where the question in dispute is a question of the value of any real (including leasehold) property, but if any person is aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioners as to the value of such property, he may appeal against the decision in manner prescribed by Part I. of Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910, and the provisions as to appeals under that part of the Act shall apply accordingly.

Notwithstanding anything in the last preceding section, the proviso to subsection (5) of section 7 of the Finance Act, 1894, shall continue to apply to the valuation of property consisting of a tenancy from year to year and for determining the gross value or the net value of property for the purpose of section 16 of the principal Act.

Where it is claimed that a fixed duty is payable in respect of any property under subsection (1) of section 16 of the Finance Act, 1894, as being property of a gross value not exceeding £300 or £500, as the case may be, and such property includes property which is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners to be subject to a charge created for the purpose of securing unpaid purchase money, or money borrowed for the purpose of paying purchase money, or to be subject to or liable to be made subject to a charge for securing an advance made or to be made for the purpose of the purchase thereof, the value thereof for the purpose of determining the gross value of the property under the said section shall be taken to be its value subject to such charge or liability as aforesaid

Where an estate, in respect of which estate duty is payable on the death of a person dying on or after 30th April, 1909, comprises land on which timber, trees, wood, or underwood are growing, the value of such timber, trees, wood, or underwood shall not be taken into account in estimating the principal value of the estate or the rate of estate duty, and estate duty shall not be payable thereon, but shall at the rate due to the principal value of the estate be payable on the net moneys (if any), after deducting all necessary outgoings since the death of the deceased, which may from time to time be received from the sale of timber, trees, or wood, when felled or cut, during the period which may elapse until the land on the death of some other person again becomes liable, or would, but for this subsection, have become liable, to estate duty, and the owners or trustees of such land shall account for and pay the same accordingly as and when such moneys are received, with interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum from the date when such moneys are received. Provided that if at any time the timber, trees, or wood are sold, either with or apart from the land on which they are growing, the amount of estate duty on the principal value thereof which, but for this subsection, would have been payable on the death of the deceased, after deducting the amount (if any) of estate duty paid in respect of the timber, trees, or wood under this subsection since that date, shall become payable

This provision applies to succession duty payable in respect of woodlands in like manner as it applies to estate duty, except as regards rate of succession duty.

Where increment value duty is to be collected on the occasion of the death of any person in respect of the fee simple of any land or any interest in land comprised in the property passing on the death of that person, allowance shall be made in determining the value of the estate for the purposes of estate duty under subsection (1) of section 7 of the principal Act, for the amount of increment value duty so to be collected as if it were a debt.

DEBTS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.

Allowance against the gross principal value is made for reasonable funeral expenses, and for debts and incumbrances (including debts secured on heritage), if they were incurred or created by the deceased bona fide for full consideration in money or money's worth, wholly for his own use and benefit, and take effect out of his interest.

No allowance can be made for any debt in respect whereof there is a right to reimbursement from any other estate or person, unless such reimbursement cannot be obtained.

An allowance is not made, in the first instance for debts due from deceased to persons resident out of the United Kingdom (unless contracted to be paid in the United Kingdom, or charged on property situate within the United Kingdom), except out of the value of any personal property of the deceased situate out of United Kingdom on which duty is paid, and no repayment of duty is made in respect of any such debts, except to extent to which the personal property in foreign country or colony where creditor resided is insufficient for payment.

Repayment of duty in respect of such debts, so far as not allowed for in inventory, may be claimed within three years of recording inventory.

Overpayment of duty.—Where Commissioners satisfied that too much duty paid, excess to be repaid, and, if overpayment due to overvaluation by Commissioners, with interest at 3 per cent.

Foreign property—expenses.—Where Commissioners satisfied that any additional expense in administering or realising foreign property is incurred by reason of its being situate out of the United Kingdom, an allowance for such expense, not exceeding 5 per cent. on the value, is made.

Foreign duties.—Where Commissioners satisfied that by reason of deceased's death any duty in respect of foreign property is payable in the country where the property is situate, an allowance of the amount of that duty is made from the value of the property.

INTEREST IN EXPECTANCY.

Where an estate includes an interest in expectancy (including an estate in reversion, and every other future interest, vested or contingent, but not including reversions expectant on the determination of leases), duty in respect of that interest is to be paid, at the option of the person accountable, either with the duty on the rest of the estate, or when the interest falls into possession. If duty not paid with the duty on the rest of the estate, then for the purpose of determining the rate of duty in respect of the rest of the estate, the value of the interest is to be its value at the date of the death of the deceased. The rate of duty upon the interest, when it falls into possession, is to be calculated according to its value at that time, together with the value of the rest of the estate as previously ascertained.

Commutation.—The Commissioners, in their discretion, upon application by a person entitled to an interest in expectancy, may commute the duty which would become payable in respect of such interest for a sum to be presently paid, and for determining that sum they shall put a present value upon that duty, regard being had to the contingencies affecting the liability to, and rate and amount of, such duty, and interest being reckoned at 4 per cent.

Bona fide sale.—Where an interest in expectancy has, prior to the passing of the various Acts respectively, been bona fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, no other duty is payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable if such Acts had not been passed, and in the case of a mortgage, any higher duty payable by the mortgagor is to rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

WHEN DUE—ADDITIONAL DUTY—INTEREST.

Due.—The duty which is to be collected on an inventory or account is due on the delivery thereof or at the expiration of six months from the death, whichever first happens.

Income.—Every estate is to include all income accrued upon the property down to the date of deceased's death.

Additional duty.—Duty is, in the first instance, calculated at the appropriate rate according to the value of the estate, as set forth in inventory or account, but if afterwards it appears that for any reason too little duty has been paid, the additional duty is payable, and is treated as duty in arrear.

Interest.—Interest at 3 per cent. per annum on the estate duty (and all other death duties) is payable from date of death, or where duty payable by instalments, or becomes due at any date later than six months after the death, from the date at which the first instalment or the duty becomes due, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as if it were part of the duty.

Small estates.—Interest not charged on fixed duty of 30s. or 50s. if paid within twelve months after death.

Heritable estate and annuities.—The duty upon an account of heritable property may, at the option of the person delivering the account, be paid by eight equal yearly instalments or sixteen half-yearly instalments, with interest at the rate of 3 per cent. from the date at which the first instalment is due, and the first instalment is to be due at the expiration of twelve months from the death, and the interest on the unpaid portion of the duty is to be added to each instalment and paid accordingly; but the duty for the time being unpaid, with such interest to the date of payment, may be paid at any time, and, in case the property is sold, is to be paid on completion of the sale, and if not so paid, is to be duty in arrear.

Annuity or definite annual sum terminable or perpetual may, at option of person delivering account, be payable by four annual instalments.

Payment postponed.—Commissioners, when satisfied that duty on any property cannot, without excessive sacrifice, be raised at once, may postpone payment for such period, to such extent, and on payment of such interest, not exceeding 4 per cent. or any higher interest yielded by the property, and on such terms as they think fit.

Application for order of sale, etc.—Any person paying duty, and in whom the property is not vested, if authorised to raise the duty by sale or mortgage of the property, may apply to Court of Session—

(a.) For an order of sale, and, if granted, it shall provide for payment of duty out of price, and for disposal of surplus; Court to give directions as to sale, and may order person in whom property vested to grant disposition to purchaser, and if he refuses, may authorise Clerk of Court to execute such disposition;

(b.) For an order ordaining person in whom property vested to grant bond and disposition in security over property in favour of person who paid duty for the amount, and, if he refuses, Clerk of Court to execute such bond. Appeal from Court of Session not allowed except with leave of Court of Session or House of Lords.

Costs—repayment with interest.—Costs to be in discretion of Court, and Court may order excess of duty to be repaid with interest at 3 per cent. for such period as seems just.

Appeal without first making payment.—If satisfied as to hardship, Court may allow appeal without payment, or on part payment only of duty, and on security for the duty or unpaid portion; but in such case Court may order interest at 3 per cent. to be paid on unpaid duty, so far as it becomes payable under decision of Court.

Commissioners, if satisfied that full duty paid, or will be paid, shall, if required, give certificate to that effect, which shall discharge from further claim the property shown on certificate; (2.) Where accountable person two years after death delivers and verifies a statement, to the best of his knowledge and belief, of all property passing on the death of the person entitled thereto, Commissioners may determine rate of duty in respect of property for which applicant accountable, and on payment of duty at that rate, that property, and the applicant so far as regards it, to be discharged from further claim for duty, and Commissioners to give a certificate of discharge.

Fraud, etc., after disclosure of estate.—Certificate under (1) or (2) not to discharge any person or property in case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts, and not to affect rate of duty in respect of property afterwards shown to have passed on death; duty in respect of such property to be at such rate as would be payable if value thereof were added to value of property already accounted for.

No stamp duty shall be payable on any Conveyance or Transfer of such land to the Commissioners. Commissioners to hold and deal with such property as Parliament may determine.

LIMITATION ON DEBTS DEDUCTIBLE FROM VALUE OF ESTATE.

Where a debt or incumbrance has been incurred or created in whole or in part, for the purpose of, or in consideration for, the purchase or acquisition of extinction, whether by operation of law or otherwise, of any interest in expectancy within the meaning of the Finance Act, 1894, in any property passing or deemed to pass, on the death of a person dying after 29th April, 1910, and any person whose interest in expectancy is so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes (under any disposition made by or through devolution of law from or under the intestacy of the deceased) entitled to any interest in that property, then in determining the value of the estate of the deceased for the purpose of estate duty no allowance shall be made in respect of such debt or incumbrance, and any property charged with any such debt or incumbrance shall be deemed to pass freed from the debt or incumbrance.

Provided that:—

(a.) If part only of such debt or incumbrance was incurred or created for such purpose or as such consideration as aforesaid, this provision shall apply to that part of such debt or incumbrance only; and

(b.) If a person whose interest in expectancy in the property so purchased, acquired, or extinguished becomes entitled to an interest in part only of that property, this provision shall apply only to such part of the debt or incumbrance as bears the same proportion to the whole debt or incumbrance as the value of the part of the property to an interest in which he becomes entitled bears to the value of whole of that property.

COMPOSITION FOR "DEATH DUTIES."

Where from number of deaths on which property passed, or complicated interests of different persons therein, or other causes, it is difficult to ascertain amount of death duties (Estate, Inventory, Temporary Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties), or to do so without undue expense, Commissioners on application and all information being supplied, may assess such sum on the value of the property or interest as, in the circumstances, appears proper, and accept payment thereof in full discharge of all claims for death duties in respect of such property, and give a discharge accordingly. Discharge not to cover case of fraud or failure to disclose material facts.

APPORTIONMENT OF DUTY.

(1.) In case of property not passing to executor, rateable part of duty may be recovered by person who, being so authorised or required, has paid the duty in respect of any property, from the person entitled to any sum charged on such property (whether as capital, or an annuity, or otherwise), under a disposition not containing any express provision to the contrary.

(2.) Any dispute as to proportion of duty to be borne by any property or person may be determined, on application by any person interested, in manner directed by rules of Court of Session, or, when amount in dispute is less than £50, by Sheriff Court where applicant resides or property situate.

(2.) Where the gross value of property heritable and moveable, on which duty payable on death of deceased, exclusive of property settled otherwise than by will of deceased, exceeds £100, but does not exceed £300, a fixed duty of 30s. may be paid, and where it exceeds £300 but does not exceed £500, a fixed duty of 50s. may be paid. Should the gross value have been wrongly stated, as not over £300 or £500, as the case may be, the duty according to the correct value will be payable, and the 30s. or 50s. wrongly paid will be forfeited [unless the Commissioners are satisfied that there were reasonable grounds for the original estimate of the value of the property, when the amount of fixed duty may be deducted from the estate duty payable (3 Edw. VII., 2 c. 46, §14)].

The following further provisions apply to inventories under (2.):—

The executor nominated in the will, or other applicant for representation, may apply to the commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk, who shall prepare and record inventory [Form B.], and expede confirmation; the will and testamentary writing, where the deceased left such, being produced to the sheriff-clerk or commissary-clerk.

The commissary-clerk or sheriff-clerk may require such proof as he may think sufficient to establish the identity of the executor or other applicant for representation; and if he has reason to believe that the value of the whole estate exceeds £500, he shall refuse to proceed until satisfied as to the real value.

Where an interest or expectancy in any property has before 14th April, 1930, been bona fide sold or mortgaged for full consideration in money or money's worth, then no other duty on that property shall be payable by the purchaser or mortgagee when the interest falls into possession than would have been payable prior to the passing of the Finance Act, 1930, and in the case of a mortgage any higher duty payable by the mortgager shall rank as a charge subsequent to that of the mortgagee.

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or moveable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or moveable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 3 per cent. is payable (59 and 60 Vict. c. 28, § 18 [2]).

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and moveable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY where successor competent to dispose thereof, is on the principal value after deducting Estate Duty, &c. (institute or heir of entail not to be deemed competent to dispose unless entitled to disentail without consent or having consent valued) and, where not competent to dispose, is on the annual value after allowance of the necessary outgoings as an annuity for the life of the successor, to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100. 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition.

NATIONAL HEALTH AND UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE, PENSIONS AND BENEFITS.

The State schemes of national health insurance and contributory pensions are interlocked in finance and administration. They apply compulsorily to the same classes, that is, broadly, to employed persons between the ages of 16 and 65. There is an income limit (£400 for men and £250 for women) a year for those who are employed on other than manual labour, and certain classes who are exempted from insurance may become voluntary contributors.

The schemes are financed by contributions from employers, employees, and the State. The contributions of employers and employees are made weekly in the form of insurance stamps. The amounts at present are as follows:—

	Men.	Women.
National health insurance } Pensions - - - }	1s. 10d.	1s. 5d.

The national health insurance scheme provides benefits as follows:—Medical benefit (except to voluntary contributors whose total income exceeds £250 p.a., their weekly contribution is reduced by 3d.). Sickness benefit, men 15s., women—unmarried and widows 12s., married 10s., weekly. Disablement benefit, men 7s. 6d., women—unmarried and widows 6s., married 5s., weekly. Maternity benefit 40s. Ordinarily insurance is effected through an approved society, which may use a valuation surplus to provide additional benefits such as dental or ophthalmic treatment.

The contributory pensions scheme is a scheme of widows' and orphans' pensions, children's allowances, and old age pensions. The old age pensions are payable to insured persons at 65 years of age, and their wives (provided they have attained the age of 60). Widows' and orphans' pensions and children's allowances are payable on the death of the insured person.

The pensions and allowances are as follows:—

Old age pensions (payable to both man and wife)	10s. a week.
Widows	10s. "
Children—
First child	5s. "
Each other child	3s. "
Orphans	7s. 6d. "

The scheme started in January, 1926, after the passing of the Widows', Orphans', and Old Age Contributory Pensions Act, 1925. The basic qualification for pensions and allowances is insurance for stated periods and the payment of stated numbers of contributions. This qualification is modified in favour of pre-Act classes (i.e., widows whose husbands died or whose husbands were over 70 when the scheme came into force). Thus, a widow whose husband died before January, 1926, receives a pension if her husband was in insurable employment for the last three years of his life, and if either she is 55 or over, or, irrespective of her age, she has a child under 16 at school. Children's and orphans' allowances are payable generally wherever a widow's pension is, or would be payable.

Emigration to any part of the British Empire does not entail loss of pension and insured persons who emigrate may continue their contributions for pensions.

The pensions and allowances are payable through Post Offices and the scheme is administered direct by the Central Departments, the Ministry of Health, England and Wales, and the Department of Health for Scotland.

The Acts are Widows', Orphans', and Old Age Contributory Pensions Acts, 1925 to 1937.

These contributory pensions and allowances are distinct from the non-contributory pensions which are payable under the Old Age Pensions Acts, 1908 to 1924, to persons over seventy years of age whose incomes are below certain limits and who are eligible otherwise on grounds of residence and nationality.

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

Present contributions and benefits (General Scheme) are:—

Contributions (Joint Weekly—shared equally by the three parties concerned)—Persons 21 and under 65—Men, 2s. 6d.; women, 2s. 3d. Persons 18 and under 21—Youths, 2s. 3d.; girls, 2s. 0d.

Benefits (Weekly)—Persons 21 and under 65—Men, 20s.; women, 18s. Persons 18 and under 21—Youths, 16s; girls, 14s.; with additional 10s. for adult dependant, and 4s. for each dependant child. (Lower contributions and benefits for persons under 18.)

AGRICULTURE INSURANCE.

The 1936 Act introduces a self-contained scheme extended to workers in Agriculture (including horticulture and forestry) estimated to bring into unemployment insurance a further 750,000 persons, under the following scale of contributions (as from 4/5/36) and benefits (as from 5/11/36) with special conditions as to duration of claim, &c., e.g., instead of 30 contributions to satisfy the 1st statutory condition as in the "General" scheme, the "Agricultural" scheme requires 20 contributions in the preceding 2 years, with extended benefit in continued unemployment proportionate to contributions standing to applicant's credit:—

Contributions (Joint Weekly—shared equally by the three parties)—Persons 21 and over—Men, 10½d.; women, 9d.

Benefits (Weekly)—Persons 21 and over—Men, 18s.; Women, 15s.; with additional 10s. for adult dependant, and 4s. each dependant child. (Lower contribution and benefits for juveniles.)

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

Established in Glasgow, 1848.

Summary of Report for Twelve Months ending 31st March, 1940.

The primary object of the Society is to visit poor families in their own homes and give assistance in money, food, clothing, &c., to deserving cases; but no work of charity, which it is possible for a layman to undertake, comes amiss to the members—they extend a helping hand to the deserving poor, no matter what their religion may be.

During the year ending 31st March, 1940, the number of families relieved was over 8,593. The number of visits to the homes of the poor was about 55,943. Numbers of persons were assisted to get work, and others sent to friends. Through the influence of the Society many admissions were procured for persons to Infirmaries, Hospitals, Lanark Orphanage and Homes.

In addition to the other works of the Society, the members have the undernoted homes under their care:—Holiday Home for poor children, Langbank: and Rutherglen, for destitute children.

The total income for the year amounted to £19,905 4s. 3d. This sum has been practically all used in relieving the poor, only a very small sum being required for working expenses, i.e., stationery, &c. The Society holds no property. Its income is derived entirely from voluntary contributions, and is expended as received for the relief of the poor.

The work is carried on gratuitously by over 1,300 members, all laymen, belonging to the various Catholic congregations in the Archdiocese of Glasgow. The books and accounts have been audited by Mr. Hugh Brechin, C.A. (Messrs. Dempster, Brechin & Waddell, C.A.), 34 West George Street, C.2.

Subscriptions and donations will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurers, St. Vincent de Paul Society, 92 Dunlop Street, C.1, or members of the Executive Committee.

A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Apart from gratuities granted, at the present time 3,383 widows and members are receiving annuities which alone involve an annual liability of over £55,400, and 13 children are also being assisted at a cost of approximately £300 per annum, apart from those provided for in our Orphanage at Derby.

The majority of the recipients of annuities are widows of railway employees, a large proportion of whom are quite unable to assist themselves in any way, and in the case of the men themselves, they are all permanently disabled, consequently they cannot increase their slender means.

The Scottish committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, JOHN HASTIE, London Midland & Scottish Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow, C.2.

The Orphan Homes are supported by voluntary contributions, and there is no endowment. There are over 1,13? boys and girls in the Homes at present, and additions are made to these almost daily. A sum of about £50,000 is required annually for the maintenance of these Homes, which comprise about eighty separate buildings, the children being housed in cottages in families of about 25 boys or girls in each Home, under suitable foster parents Girls are trained for domestic service, &c., and boys learn trades, afterwards, in some cases, being apprenticed in the City. Emigration of suitable children is carried on as far as possible.

The Sanatorium was begun in 1894, and comprises three buildings for patients, and other establishments. There are 200 beds for male and female patients. Patients in the early and hopeful stages of the disease only are admitted.

The Colony for Epileptics, commenced in 1903, for men and women suffering from epilepsy and for children similarly afflicted, has accommodation for about 140 inmates.

NORTH PARISH WASHING GREEN SOCIETY.

INCORPORATED 1794.

The Society takes its name from the Green which was situated to the North-east of the Cathedral, and which was in use for the residents of the North district for washing and drying purposes during the 18th and 19th centuries.

A small charge was made by Mr. Thos. Leitch, the Founder, and the proceeds applied to helping old women residents who were in poor circumstances.

This ground was acquired by the Glasgow Royal Infirmary in 1873, and the price paid to the Society was the foundation of the present Stock Funds. The Interest on the Stock is administered according to the original intentions of the Founder. This is done by a Board of Directors; all administrative services are given freely by those gentlemen.

The Beneficiaries usually number about 50 and receive 7/6 per month.

The Directors know, from personal investigation, the blessing this is to those old folks, but are conscious how many equally deserving might be helped if the Stock of the Society was increased. The Directors invite, therefore, the consideration of those who have the means to do so. Life membership is accepted on payment of One Guinea.

Preses—J. Arnold Fleming, Esq., J.P.

Treasurer—J. T. Smith, 222 Parliamentary Road, C.4.

THE ROYAL TECHNICAL COLLEGE, GLASGOW.

Under the title of the Glasgow and West of Scotland Technical College, the college as now constituted was established in 1886 by an Order in Council amalgamating several old institutions, notably Anderson's College, founded in 1796, and the first technical college in the kingdom; the College of Science and Arts, the successor of the first Mechanics' Institute; the "Young" Chair of Technical Chemistry and the Atkinson Institution. In February, 1912, His Majesty King George V. honoured the college by directing that in future it should be known as "The Royal Technical College, Glasgow." The College offers many courses of instruction in applied science, and is specially designed to give the most suitable education to students intending to enter an industrial profession or trade. The College is affiliated to the University of Glasgow and the Degrees of the University in Applied Science are open to its students. Although the complete courses of study extend over either three or four years, students are at liberty to enter for any less period. The instruction in both day and evening classes is made as practical as possible, and there are fully equipped laboratories in the departments of physics, chemistry, technical chemistry, dyeing, metallurgy, mechanics, mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, mining, geology, textile manufacture, botany, bacteriology, pharmacy, pharmacognosy, zoology, navigation and bakery. The museums contain several important collections, and the library consists of about 25,000 volumes, including many valuable works. A reading room is provided in which may be consulted the current issues of the principal scientific and technical journals. There are many valuable bursaries and scholarships in connection with the College.

Chairman of the Governors, Robert Robertson, D.L., B.Sc., LL.D., M.Inst.C.E.; director, Sir Arthur J. C. Huddleston, C.M.G., O.B.E., M.A.; secretary, Alex. Mackay, F.C.I.S.; treasurer, James S. Croft; tutor and librarian, William G. Burrell, M.A.

The income of the Hospital from endowment having, since the year 1913, become insufficient, notwithstanding every economy, to meet the ordinary expenditure the Trustees are faced with the alternative of either curtailing the beneficent work of the Hospital, or of appealing to the generosity of the public for an increase in revenue.

ROYAL HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN.

Hospital, Yorkhill, Glasgow, C.3.
Dispensary, 11 West Graham Street, C.4.
Country Branch, Drumchapel, Dumbartonshire.

Patronesses: Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen, Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Mary. Vice-Patronesses: H.R.H. The Princess Royal, H.R.H. Princess Arthur of Connaught. President, The Right Hon. The Earl of Home, K.T., LL.D. Vice-President, Lady Gardiner. Directors (32 innumber). Chairman and Honorary Secretary, Robert F. Barclay, C.B.E., LL.D., 205 St. Vincent Street, C.2. Hon. Treasurer, Hugh R. Buchanan, LL.B., 172 St. Vincent St., C.2. Secretary and Cashier, James Methven; Organising Collector, James Glen Boyd—both at Hospital City Office, 86 St. Vincent Street, C.2. Medical Superintendent, Dr. D. Campbell Suttie. Matron, Miss M. O. Robinson.

The objects of the institution are:—(1) The medical and surgical treatment of poor children suffering from non-infectious diseases; (2) the advancement and diffusion of medical science with reference to children's diseases; (3) the training of nurses for sick children.

The institution (founded in 1882) consists of:—(1) a hospital at Yorkhill, near the University, containing 312 cots, which was completed in 1914, and opened by their Majesties King George the Fifth and Queen Mary in July of that year. In the wards of the hospital about 6,000 children are treated each year, and in addition there are about 25,000 attendances of out-patients in the admission department of the hospital; (2) an out-patient department or dispensary at 11 West Graham Street, opened in 1888, where over 20,000 cases, involving over 80,000 attendances, are treated per annum; and (3) a country branch of the hospital at Drumchapel, opened in 1903 and extended in 1930, containing 80 cots, where about 1,000 children requiring somewhat prolonged treatment are cared for per annum.

The hospital, dispensary and country branch are all supported by voluntary contributions. The Directors appeal most earnestly for funds, as the ordinary income is quite insufficient to meet the largely increased expenditure necessary if the children of Glasgow and the West of Scotland are to reap the full advantage of all the resources of the hospital. Subscribers are entitled to recommend one patient for every £1 1s. subscribed. Subscriptions and donations should be sent to the Cashier at the address given above.

Subscribers and others interested and desiring to see over the hospital may do so any afternoon.

MAIMED AND LIMBLESS SAILORS AND SOLDIERS.

PRINCESS LOUISE SCOTTISH HOSPITAL, ERSKINE HOUSE, NEAR BISHOPTON.

President, The Rt. Hon. The Lord Provost of Glasgow.

Hon. Treasurer, Sir Harold E. Yarrow, Bt., C.B.E.

Secy. and Treas., T. A. Harvie Anderson, C.B., D.L., 201 West George Street, C.2.

The activities of the institution are being devoted to the assistance, medical and otherwise, of all classes of maimed and disabled ex-soldiers and sailors.

During the period of its existence the Hospital has treated 14,441 cases, and since 1931 has been utilised by the Ministry of Pensions for the treatment of the majority of their cases in the Glasgow, Western and South Western Scottish Area. A special Paraplegic Section has been established to care for completely incapacitated men.

Another direction in which the institution carries on its beneficent labours is in providing Workshops for the employment of disabled men in a variety of occupations suitable to their capacity. There are at present about 31 men engaged at the Workshops in the following occupations:—Basketmaking, Bootmaking, Cabinetmaking, French Polishing, Upholstery and Arts and Crafts, Market Gardening, Pigs, and Poultry.

A new scheme was recently inaugurated to provide that men with war service, whether disabled or not, who have been ill and require a convalescent holiday which they cannot afford to pay for, can be admitted to the Hospital for a period of four weeks. This scheme has been very successful and of great benefit to the men and their dependants. Men are admitted under this scheme on the recommendation of recognised Regimental Associations, or The City of Glasgow Society of Social Service and the Public Assistance Department.

Arrangements have been made to extend to the same class of case injured in the present war the facilities of the institution, and already the stream of such cases is arriving.

The Athenæum School of Music was established in 1890 and its curriculum was designed to provide for the musical education of those studying the art for the pleasure it affords, while at the same time making arrangements for the systematic education of professional students.

The scheme for the foundation of a Scottish National Academy of Music and a Chair of Music in the University of Glasgow was suggested some years ago with the Athanæum School of Music to form a nucleus on which the scheme might be extended and developed. The Chair of Music is now in being and closely associated with the Scottish National Academy of Music, the Professor of the Gardiner Chair of Music being the Principal of the Academy.

In 1939 the Academy was officially recognised as a Central Institution by the Scottish Education Department.

The administration includes a wide representation of those interested in music and active relationships are being established with the Scottish Universities and the principal Education Authorities and institutions in Scotland.

The curriculum has been greatly extended and in addition to the usual diplomas there has been instituted a special diploma in musical education for students wishing to qualify as teachers in public schools. The course of study extends for a period of three years. This diploma has been drawn up at the request and with the co-operation of The Scottish Music Teachers' Association.
